Schools plan costly to CISD taxpayers

By Doyle Garrison
Carthage school officials are enrolling CISD taxpayers to pay for a plan of action to improve their schools, which is supported by state Comptroller. The plan, which had been in the works for months, is supported by Carthage school district officials and is expected to cost the district $12 million per year for a total of $539,990,000 over 30 years.

To date, the plan would take state money from larger and wealthier districts and give it to the smaller and wealthier districts, including Carthage school district. The proposed mechanism would allow for d)

Hospital funds curing problem

By Doyle Garrison

The recent ebb and flow of the flu epidemic in Carthage has sparked a discussion among local officials about the need for additional hospital beds. According to hospital officials, the hospital has been able to accommodate the current number of flu cases, but the possibility of a flu outbreak in the future has raised concerns among local health officials.

A recent study by the Center for Disease Control and Prevention found that flu outbreaks can lead to an increase in hospital admissions, particularly for children. In Carthage, the local hospital has been able to handle the current flu cases, but the hospital is still relying on temporary measures to accommodate the flu season.

Editorial:

President Reagan deserves support

The nation was in mourning this week as we reflected on the tragic death of President John F. Kennedy. We as a nation mourned not just for the loss of a leader and a symbol of unity, but also for the loss of a chance for positive change. President Kennedy had a vision of a better world, a world where the injustices of the past could be put to rest. He believed in the power of ideas and the potential of people to change the world for the better. His vision and his leadership helped to bring about the end of the Cold War and the expansion of human rights around the world.

We must all be grateful for the legacy of President Kennedy, and we should support the President we have now, Ronald Reagan. Reagan is a strong leader who has restored our nation's pride and our economy. He has worked to bring about a more hopeful future for all Americans. We must support him in his efforts to achieve our shared goals.

Commissioners due hospital applause

Panola County Commissioners have not been criticized by the public for their recent decision to close the hospital in Batesville. The decision was based on sound financial reasons and is in the best interest of the patients. The commissioners have shown leadership and compassion in making this difficult decision. They have also demonstrated a commitment to the needs of the community.

Letter to the Editor:

Miss East Texas says 'thank you'

Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my gratitude to the staff of the hospital in Batesville. They have been wonderful to me and my family during a difficult time. I am grateful for their care and their support.

Sincerely,

Zachary loses TUGCO contract for maintenance at Martin Lake

Texas Tucker Generating Company, owner of the Martin Lake Power Plant, has decided to end its contract with TUGCO Plant Maintenance for the maintenance contract on the Martin Lake Unit 1 and Big Brown Unit 3.

A spokesman for the company explained that the decision was made based on the company's plans to reduce costs. The spokesman said that the company is now in the process of evaluating the options for the future of the maintenance of these units. The company has not yet made a decision on whether to bring the maintenance in-house or to find a new contractor.

The Martin Lake Power Plant is a coal-fired power plant located near the city of Carthage. The plant has two units, Unit 1 and Unit 3, which together generate approximately 1,200 megawatts of electricity.

Texas Tucker Generating Company is a subsidiary of the Texas Tucker Energy Group, a private energy company based in Houston. The company owns several power plants in Texas, including the Martin Lake Power Plant.

Noon Lions entertain crowd Friday night

By Dakota Decker
The Carthage Noon Lions Club was excited to host their annual Noon Lions Show on Friday, June 4, at the Center for the Arts of Carthage. The event was a popular event among the city's residents, who came to enjoy the performances and support the local organization.

The Noon Lions Show is a tradition that has been going on for over 50 years, and it is a great way for the community to come together and celebrate the work of the Noon Lions. The show features a variety of acts, including music, dance, and comedy, and it is always a highlight of the year.

Organizers of the Noon Lions Show were pleased with the turnout for the event, which was held at the Center for the Arts of Carthage. The building was filled to capacity, and the attendees were all enjoying the performances.

A special thank you goes out to Colonel Thomas, the Commanding General of the Noon Lions, for his support of the event. Without his help, the Noon Lions Show would not have been possible.

A special thank you also goes out to all of the performers who took part in the show, including the Carthage High School Band, the Carthage High School Choir, and the Carthage High School Dance Team. Their hard work and dedication made the show a success.

The Noon Lions Show is a great way for the community to come together and support a local organization. We hope to see everyone there next year!
