Win in o.t. on long jumper
Ponies nip Cards to keep hopes alive

By JIM HUBBARD
Sports Editor

Ponies' win in overtime on a long jumper by senior Becca Davis preserved the team's hopes of a trip to the state playoffs. The Ponies took the lead for the first time in the fourth quarter when Davis made a three-pointer to go ahead, 34-32. In overtime, Davis made a long jumper from about 20 feet away to put the Ponies ahead, 37-34. In the second overtime, Davis made two free throws to put the Ponies ahead, 40-37. But in the final overtime, the Cards came back to tie the game at 41. In the fourth quarter, Davis made two free throws to put the Ponies ahead, 43-41. In the final seconds of the game, Davis made a three-pointer to put the Ponies ahead, 46-41.

Lions win, Maidens fall

By JIM HUBBARD

City library hires new librarian

Kelly Manor has recently been hired by the Southwestern League Library as the new librarian for the Carthage branch. Manor graduated from East Texas State University in 1982, majoring in library science and sociology. He started his new position in Carthage in April after being a loan assistant for 10 years at the University of Houston. Manor is the brother of former Carthage Mayor, Ken Manor, who is now serving as mayor of the city. Manor's previous experience in library work includes positions at the University of Texas at Austin and the University of Houston. Manor is looking forward to working with the community and helping people find the information they need. He encourages people to stop by the library and say hello!

Vaughn captures Imperial talent, beauty awards

Mary Vaughn, a member of the Imperial Court of Panola County, recently captured Imperial talent and beauty awards at the annual Imperial Coronation in Texas. Vaughn represented Carthage Safeway in the talent competition, where she performed a dance routine to the song "Fever" by Peggy Lee. She was judged on her performance, presentation, and audience appeal. Vaughn was also chosen as the Miss Imperial Beauty of Panola County, where she was judged on her poise, elegance, and beauty. Vaughn is a member of the Imperial Court of Panola County and has been involved in various community events and activities. She is proud to represent Carthage Safeway and grateful for the opportunity to showcase her talent and beauty. Vaughn encourages everyone to support local businesses and community events.

Tatum Garden Club meeting hosted

The Tatum Garden Club hosted a meeting on April 15th, 1982, to discuss the current state of the gardens and plans for the future. The meeting was held in the Tatum City Hall, and was attended by members of the club and interested community members. The meeting included a presentation by a local gardening expert on the care and maintenance of different types of plants. The presentation was followed by a Q&A session, where members had the opportunity to ask questions and share their experiences. The meeting concluded with a group photo, taken in the Tatum City Park, to commemorate the event. The Tatum Garden Club is an organization dedicated to promoting and preserving the beauty of the Tatum community through gardening and horticulture. They host regular meetings and events throughout the year, and are always welcome new members. If you are interested in joining, please contact the club at 123-4567.

Scholarship Foundation sets modeling clinic

The Scholarship Foundation has set up a modeling clinic in the Tatum City Hall on April 15th, 1982. The clinic will feature several local photographers and fashion designers, who will be available to give free modeling advice to anyone who attends. The clinic will also include a Q&A session, where participants can ask questions and get tips from the professionals. The Scholarship Foundation is a non-profit organization that provides scholarships and other financial assistance to students in the Tatum community. They are always looking for new ways to support local students and encourage them to pursue their academic goals. The modeling clinic is just one of the many events they host throughout the year, and is open to anyone who is interested in learning more about the fashion industry.
