Medical clinic proposed for hospital

By Mark Miller
Panola General Hospital's board of managers agreed Tuesday night that the hospital should add a medical clinic to its facilities. Although no new building is planned at this time, the board gained startegy for the future.

The board also was moved toward a decision on how to handle the cost of hospital services. This matter is being discussed continuously and will be presented later in the year.

The board recommended that the hospital's future plans be reviewed at a later meeting.
