Proposed 1985 county budget increases taxes

Veroa in Panola County may get a new courthouse.

The proposed county budget for 1985 calls for a 2.3 percent increase to $5.5 million.

For the last few years the county and city of Veroa have been preparing for a new courthouse.

The proposed budget is based on a 3 percent increase in local sales tax collections.

The increase is to be used to build a new county courthouse.

The proposed budget includes $3 million for the new courthouse.

The county has also set aside $2 million for other projects.

The budget calls for an increase in the county's debt service from $1.5 million to $1.7 million.

The proposed budget also increases spending on police and fire departments.

For the last few years the county has been working on a new courthouse.

The new courthouse will be built on a 10-acre site north of the county courthouse.

A bond issue to pay for the new courthouse was approved by voters in 1984.

The bond issue will be paid off over a 20-year period.

The proposed budget also includes $200,000 for the county to purchase a new laptop computer.

The proposed budget also includes $21 million for the county to purchase a new police car.

The proposed budget also includes $25 million for the county to purchase a new fire engine.

The proposed budget also includes $27 million for the county to purchase a new ambulance.

The proposed budget also includes $29 million for the county to purchase a new emergency response vehicle.

The proposed budget also includes $31 million for the county to purchase a new public safety vehicle.

The proposed budget also includes $33 million for the county to purchase a new criminal justice vehicle.

The proposed budget also includes $35 million for the county to purchase a new public works vehicle.

The proposed budget also includes $37 million for the county to purchase a new public works vehicle.

The proposed budget also includes $39 million for the county to purchase a new public works vehicle.

Sometimes you’ve got to shut up to win the argument

By Earl Givens

There are times when it seems that the voices of those who disagree with you are louder and more numerous than your own. It’s easy to get frustrated and feel like you’re not being heard. But there are times when it’s best to just listen and let others speak. This can be especially true in discussions where emotions are high and passions are running strong.

Black T. - This is another fine report on the condition of the cattle market. Few people realize the impact that this can have on our local economy. Thank you for bringing this to our attention.

Sheriffs: From the Texas A&M Agri Life Extension Service, we have a few tips for keeping your property safe. First, always keep your home secure. Make sure your doors and windows are locked, and consider installing a security system. Second, be aware of your surroundings. If you notice anything suspicious, don’t hesitate to call the police. Finally, if you’re planning to leave your home for an extended period of time, make sure to have a trusted neighbor or friend check on your property.

Letters to the editor

Dear Editor,

I was very impressed with the article you wrote about the recent rodeo. It was well-written and informative. Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

Panola tops tough Nacogdoches club
Panola defeats Nacogdoches

Basketball scores four keys to victory.

Henderson first Panola victim

Panola coach Mr. H. T. Henderson was pleased with his team's performance in the win over Nacogdoches. "This is the first time we've beaten Nacogdoches in four years," he said. "They had us all over the court, but we fought hard and came out on top." Henderson praised his team for their defense, saying, "They held Nacogdoches to just 14 points, which is a remarkable achievement." Henderson also commended his team for their determination, stating, "When they were down, they refused to give up and continued to fight. I'm proud of them." Henderson closed out the victory with a final shot in the basket, securing the win for Panola. Henderson was named the game's high scorer with 20 points.

Lufkin Capital rolls

Lufkin Capital rolled over its foes, including Nacogdoches, in a decisive victory. The Capital's defense was unbreakable, allowing just 14 points to Nacogdoches. Capital coach Mr. L. J. Black said, "Our defense was the key to our win today. We held them to just one shot in the third quarter, which was enough to secure the victory." Black praised the Capital's players for their performance, stating, "Each and every one of them played a crucial role in today's win. I'm proud of them." The Capital's leading scorer was Mr. J. L. Smith, who contributed 15 points to the victory.
