Preliminary plans under revision

County targets January, 1986 for jail

By Earl Chandler

Gainesville, Jan. 9 (FAM) - Preliminary plans for a jail were approved by the County Commissioners at their regular meeting Monday. The new jail will be built on the outskirts of the county, in an area that has been identified as the site for the new facility. The planned jail will cost approximately $15 million, and is expected to be completed by January 1986. The project is part of a larger plan to improve the county's infrastructure, including a new courthouse and a new sheriff's department. The construction of the jail is expected to create jobs for local workers and to stimulate the local economy. The project is also expected to provide safer and more efficient facilities for the county's incarcerated population. The new jail will feature state-of-the-art security and sanitation features. The County Commissioners are confident that the new jail will be a significant improvement over the current facility.

More members sought for assistance committee

County commissioners agreed Tuesday to designate representatives in the Panola County Assistance Committee to ensure the board is well represented. The board decided Tuesday morning to increase the number of representatives to five, including two local officials, a business representative, a citizen representative and a clergyman.

Robert Davis suggested that the board consider adding three people to the advisory group. The county's next meeting is May 19, and committee members must be in place.

"We should consider adding three people to the advisory group," Davis said. "We should have a well-rounded group of people to work with.

The board decided to add an additional member to the committee to ensure a well-rounded group of people to work with. The new member will be appointed by the county commissioner and will serve for one year.

Oil decline affects revenues

By K. Johnston

The decline in oil prices has had a significant impact on the state's revenue streams. With oil revenues accounting for a substantial portion of the state's budget, the reduction in oil prices has led to a decrease in state income. This has necessitated a reevaluation of the state's financial strategies to ensure continued stability.

New Panola County jail slated for 1986

The construction of a new jail facility in Panola County is planned for 1986. The new facility will replace the current jail, which is inadequate for the increasing number of prisoners. The new jail will be designed to accommodate a larger number of inmates and will include modern facilities to improve prisoner safety and security.
