Five sign intent for CISD election
City election filings start slow

A few city government officials have filed papers to run for the Pampa City Council or Pampa City Commission, but the number of filings has been slow. Those who have filed include:

- Pampa City Commission Chairman and Mayor Pat O'Brien, who is running for re-election.
- Pampa City Councilor-at-Large Mike Martel, who is running for re-election.
- Pampa City Councilor-at-Large Matthew Shelton, who is running for re-election.

All three candidates have filed for re-election, and Mayor O'Brien will run for re-election, according to the City of Pampa.

County tax deadline passed

The county tax deadline has passed for Pampa County. All tax payments must be made by September 10. Failure to do so may result in penalties and interest charges. Those with questions about their tax bill or payment options should contact the Pampa County Tax Assessor-Collector at 254-558-4510.

Jail gets boost

The Pampa County Jail has received an increase in its budget, allowing for the hiring of additional staff. This increase will help to improve inmate safety and reduce overcrowding. The new staff will focus on improving the overall quality of care for inmates.

Companie's settle suits

Two companies have settled suits filed by the Pampa County Attorney. The suits were related to public record requests for information about a local business. The companies agreed to pay a total of $5,000 in settlement.

Tribe defeats Dogs

Jacksonville and Carthage are both very close to qualifying for the Class 4A state tournament. Jacksonville defeated Carthage, 68-65, in a close game.

The ball was in the hands of the Tribe’s Tyron White with 10 seconds left on the clock and the score tied at 65-65. White drove to the basket and scored the winning basket, giving Jacksonville the victory.

Carthage's Easton Thomas scored 22 points in the game, but it was not enough to overcome the Tribe’s defense.

In another game, Carthage defeated Jacksonville, 78-72. Carthage's Tyler Johnson scored 24 points and was named the game’s most valuable player.

The Carthage defense was dominant, limiting the Tribe to just 72 points. Carthage is now 18-7 on the season and is hoping to make a deep run in the playoffs.

On the other hand, Jacksonville is 17-8 on the season and is looking to make a strong showing in the playoffs as well.

Maidens warm up for playoffs

Tribe defeats Dogs

This was a closely contested game between two very strong teams. The Maids scored early and often, building a lead that they never gave up. The Tribe fought back, but the Maids were too much for them in the end.

The Maids were led by guard Jennifer Williams, who scored 20 points. Forward Ashley Johnson added 16 points, and center Emily Moore contributed 14 points and 12 rebounds.

The Tribe was led by forward Tyler White, who scored 22 points. Guard Andrew Johnson added 16 points, and center Matthew Moore contributed 14 points and 10 rebounds.

The Maids will advance to the regional tournament, while the Tribe will have to play in a playoff game to determine their spot in the regional tournament.

Committee plans barbeque
Event to promote “Go-Texan” program here

Newly established Go-Texan Committee will hold its first annual barbeque in conjunction with rodeo coming up in the Panola County Fair next week. The event will be a community function and will be held at the fairgrounds. The committee is composed of local citizens interested in promoting the Go-Texan spirit and encouraging all Panola County residents to participate in the event.

The committee plans to serve a delicious meal of barbeque, ribs, and cornbread, along with a variety of side dishes. The event will be held on Saturday, May 15th, from noon to 2 PM. Attendees are encouraged to bring their own chairs and enjoy the food under the shade of the trees. The cost of the meal will be $10 per person, with children under 10 years old attending for free.

Radio society plans Feb 21 meeting here

The Radio Society of Panola County will hold its monthly meeting on February 21st. The meeting will be held at the Panola County Courthouse, located at 101 N. Main Street, Carthage. The meeting will begin at 7 PM and will be open to the public.

The purpose of the meeting is to provide a forum for radio amateurs to discuss various aspects of radio technology and share knowledge with one another. The meeting will also feature a demonstration of a new radio equipment and a presentation on a related topic.

CISD school bus fleet covers the county

CISD (Canton Independent School District) has a comprehensive school bus fleet that covers the entire county. The district operates over 100 school buses, which transport students to and from school every day. The buses are equipped with the latest safety features and technology to ensure the safety and well-being of the students. The district also conducts regular maintenance and inspection to ensure that all buses are in good working condition.

Defense improvements under way

After a review of the current defense situation in the area, a new defense improvement program is being developed by the local defense officials. The program will focus on enhancing the security and preparedness of the area against potential threats.

The defense officials have identified several key areas for improvement, including the enhancement of the local defense infrastructure, the training of local defense personnel, and the development of new defense technologies. The program will also involve collaboration with other local and regional defense authorities to ensure a comprehensive and effective defense strategy.

The defense officials have estimated that the program will require a significant investment of resources and personnel. However, they believe that the benefits of improved defense will be well worth the investment. The program will be implemented in phases, with the first phase focusing on the enhancement of the local defense infrastructure.
