GOD MIXED THE SPRING PALETTE WITH EXQUISITE PASTELS

As the patches of snow have all melted away,
With the end of the cold winter days,
Then the sun will ascend on a warmer warer day
When the barren branches burst.
As the branches emerge from the buds all around
And the birds with their choice cries sound
All the color and fragrance and beautiful sound
Make us thankful for being alive.
When we learn to walk God begins to move
All the blessings from his picture will grow.
While enjoying the loveliest time of the year
When the earth comes to us the spring.

— George Rosvold
