County ranks 11th in district traffic accidents

Panama County ranks 11th in the state in number of traffic accidents this year, according to reports by the Texas Department of Transportation. The county had 47 reported accidents, with 11 of those involving deaths. Two of the accidents resulted in fatalities.

Panama County, however, is not doing as well on the roads during the month of May. The number of accidents in May was higher than in April, and the number of fatalities has increased. Traffic accidents in the county have been on the rise since the beginning of the year, with 11 fatalities recorded so far this year.

The county has taken steps to improve road safety, including the installation of new traffic lights and road signs. However, more must be done to reduce the number of accidents and fatalities.

Group of students with IDEAS

Beckville Elementary has it

By Earl Chewster

What is happening in the halls of Beckville Elementary School doesn't just involve the students. The halls are buzzing with activity as the school, like many others in the region, is working to incorporate innovative teaching methods to engage students and enhance their learning experience. Following the lead of the national trend, Beckville is now implementing IDEAS (Individualized Differentiated Education And Support System) in their classrooms to tailor the learning experience to the individual needs of each student. The school has recently announced that a group of students has been selected to participate in this new program. The selected students will be receiving specialized instruction from their teachers, who are trained to work with them in a one-on-one setting. The program is designed to help students who may be struggling with traditional classroom instruction. In addition to the students, the school also believes that teachers will benefit from participating in IDEAS. They will have the opportunity to work with students who may have learning difficulties, and this will provide them with valuable experience. The school is confident that this program will help with the overall improvement of the school's academic performance. The implementation of IDEAS is just one of the many initiatives that Beckville Elementary School is undertaking to ensure that their students receive the best education possible.

FAITH TELLS US OF THE REAL WEALTH THAT IS TAX-EXEMPT

Try during the recent national election campaign, a great deal was said on the subject of taxes, and the debate centered on whether or not it is necessary to increase them immediately, or to enact this act upon the tax roll at some future date. However, even during a year when there is no clear-cut issue in progress, we are all fully aware that taxes are the standard measure of government. We are spending enough time with our families, or we are too preoccupied with earning money for our survival that we can too easily overlook their amount and the tax base of our income. Yet House of Worship shows what is most needed by real wealth, which will always be free tax.

These merchants urge you to attend the church of your choice this Sunday!
