Students honor astronauts

Thousands of Panola County residents, along with the rest of the nation, watched in horror as the crew of the space shuttle Challenger exploded in a ball of fire 12 miles above the ocean. As the country tried to return to normal, so did the Panola County High School students, who were scheduled to honor the fallen astronauts on Monday. Instead, the scheduled Friday morning assembly was canceled, and the students were left to think about the tragedy that had befallen them.

The space shuttle Challenger was ripped apart by the explosion, which occurred on the huge external fuel tank. This was the first time in flight deaths in the United States space program. The first reactions to the terrible news were shock, sadness, and the realization that the nation would be forever changed. Some students were left speechless, others cried, and some were angry.

Education is key to preventing tragedy

Young people can help fight crime, too

By Robert B. Mcllwane

Counseling young people to stay away from the dangers of drugs and crime in today's society is not a task that can be left to the police. It requires a comprehensive strategy that involves schools, families, and the community at large. Young people themselves must be encouraged to become active in their own prevention efforts.

Chuck: I think the key to preventing crime is education. By educating young people about the consequences of drug use and criminal behavior, we can help them make better choices and avoid getting involved in these activities. It's important to teach them about the dangers and the negative impact that drugs and crime can have on their lives.

Chapel Hill rips Carthage by 72-50

By TB LUCE

CHAPEL HILL- Chapel Hill's girls basketball team scored the first basket of the game to show off their 72-50 victory over Carthage. The game was held at the Chapel Hill High School on Saturday, February 4, 1988.

Chapel Hill, led by a strong performance from their starting lineup, was able to take control of the game early and never looked back. The Lady Bulldogs, on the other hand, struggled to keep up with the high-scoring squad and were down 20-10 at the end of the first quarter.

Chapel Hill's defense was2 able to shut down Carthage's offense, holding the Lady Bulldogs to just 50 points. Chapel Hill's scoring was led by their starters, with point guards showing their talent.

Chapel Hill's victory was a testament to their teamwork and dedication to the sport. The Lady Bulldogs, on the other hand, were left to reflect on their performance and prepare for their next game.

PARKS — Positive vibes might have ruled the second half, but the final results were negative for the Peacocks.

In a game of contrasting emotions, the Peacocks (20-10) were down 17-23 at halftime, but they turned things around in the second half to make it 40-43, but they lost 61-53 to the Bulldogs (23-6). The Bulldogs had already clinched the first seed in the final regular season game.

The Peacocks were led by Tyrell Johnson with 13 points and 15 rebounds. Wendell Johnson added 13 points and 8 rebounds, while Javon Jones had 11 points and 8 rebounds.

The Bulldogs were led by Jerome Johnson with 19 points and 6 rebounds. William Brown added 16 points and 4 rebounds, while Jordan Johnson had 10 points and 7 rebounds.

In the first half, the Peacocks were outscored 21-12, but they came back to tie the game 30-30 at the end of the first quarter. In the second half, the Bulldogs outscored the Peacocks 31-23, but the Peacocks didn't give up and fought back to make it 40-43.

The Peacocks entered the game with a 20-10 record and were looking to make a statement against the Bulldogs, who had already clinched the first seed in the final regular season game.

The game was full of twists and turns, with the Peacocks leading at the half, but the Bulldogs took control in the second half to make it 61-53.

In the end, the Peacocks fell short against the Bulldogs, who were looking to secure their place in the playoffs.

Passes are tickets to history.

Bush shares collection

By Shirley Anderson

Alberta George Bush is known throughout Panola County as a collection of over 100 railroad passes. The collection, similar to many others in the area, began with the start of rail travel.

Perhaps the most impressive piece in the collection is the ticket of the first train to arrive in Bush from the South. The collection was started in 1920, when Bush was a teenager.

The collection is a mix of both passenger and freight passes. The tickets range from the 1930s to the 1970s, covering various rail lines.

Bush began collecting the passes as a hobby and continued to do so throughout his life. He passed the collection on to his grandson, Tom Bush, who continued to add to it.

The collection includes tickets from various rail lines, including the Southern Pacific and the Missouri Pacific.

Bush said he enjoyed seeing the variety of passes and the different times and places they represented.

These two railroad passes are Bush's favorite.

Musicians head for promising career

By Shirley Anderson

If you've been to any high school musical this year, chances are you've seen the works of the band. They've been practicing and preparing for their upcoming spring concerts.

The band is known for their covers of classic rock and roll hits.

According to the band, practicing makes them feel confident and ready to perform.

Members of the band include Tony Johnson, Terry Jackson, and Michael McFarland. The group has been practicing for the past three months and has already performed at several events.

The band is looking forward to their upcoming concerts, which they hope will be a success.

'Hot Rod' featuring the band is scheduled for next week at the High School Auditorium. The concert is free and open to the public.

Local teachers to attend workshop

More than 1,000 teachers, including 10 teachers from the Panola County School District, attended the Texas Association of Educators’ (TAS) annual conference in Fort Worth. The conference, held Aug. 12-14, featured workshops and lectures on a variety of topics related to education. Teachers from Panola County attended the workshops, which focused on issues such as effective teaching strategies, classroom management, and student behavior. The workshops also included discussions on the latest developments in education policy and legislation. In addition to the formal sessions, teachers had the opportunity to network with colleagues from across the state and share ideas and best practices. The conference concluded with a keynote address by a high-profile speaker, who discussed the importance of education in shaping the future of society. Overall, the conference provided a valuable learning experience for teachers from Panola County and other parts of Texas.
