Keep Panola clean

The citizens of Panola County need to be all they can to support the efforts of Farmers! Comply Conference. As evidenced by the recent clean-up effort, people are doing their part. However, there is still much work to be done. We encourage everyone to take pride in our community and work together to keep it clean.

Students sign up for European trip

Almost 50 people have signed up for the upcoming European trip. The trip is scheduled for June 15th through July 9th. The travelers will visit popular destinations such as Paris, Rome, and London. The trip is hosted by the Panola Watchman and is open to all who are interested.

Critics say the plant is outdated and has been causing environmental problems. The company plans to build a new plant in the area.

In 67-66 loss to Apaches

The Ponies' missed chances crucial

By TED GUBB

The Ponies' missed chances were crucial in their loss to the Apaches. The team had many opportunities to score, but were unable to capitalize on them.

Defensive stop

The Ponies' defense played well, but were unable to prevent the Apaches from scoring. The team needs to improve their defensive play if they want to have a chance at winning.

'Runners rip Ponies

In 17-12 shootout

BROOKSVILLE - The Runners and Elyon Fieldes went to the playoffs after three straight years of district titles in the Pasco County Class A league. The run has been going on for two years in a row, but after the third time, they were put out of the playoffs.

The Runners had a 12-point lead over the Ponies at halftime, and the Ponies were down 12-12 in the third quarter. The Runners then went on to win 17-12.

Elyon Fieldes coach Mike Johnson said, "We were just too much for them tonight. We played well and were able to take advantage of their mistakes. We need to keep improving and looking forward to the next game."

Pay differences between sexes still abound

By C.T. Creel

Despite progress in pay equity, gender differences persist in many industries and fields. In 1979, only 1.7 percent of male medical doctors earned less than an equal amount. Today, that number is 24.2 percent. In 1979, only 4.3 percent of male college professors earned less than an equal amount. Today, that number is 32.1 percent. In 1979, only 2.7 percent of male nurses earned less than an equal amount. Today, that number is 18.1 percent. In 1979, only 6.0 percent of male elementary school teachers earned less than an equal amount. Today, that number is 14.0 percent. In 1979, only 9.7 percent of male high school teachers earned less than an equal amount. Today, that number is 10.9 percent.

I guess it’s better for my health if I put up a sign and say that I’m not for sale. I feel like it’s important to have a sense of self-worth, but sometimes I wonder if there’s something I’m missing. If money was more important to me, I might be more inclined to think about selling myself. But I like who I am, and I don’t want to lose that. I guess it’s a fine line to walk. I don’t want to be taken advantage of, but I also don’t want to feel like I’m not valuable.
