Fannin's indiction a catastrophe

By March 13, 1836, Fannin had retreated to Fort Travis near the town of Matagorda. The Mexican Army was approaching and Fannin had no means of retreat. He decided to make a stand at the fort. On March 18, Fannin began to barricade the fort. The next day, Fannin was killed in battle. The Mexican Army captured the fort.

Where's Charlie? "Music Man"

Tiede, known for the beauty of his voice, was often seen with the smile that lit up the room. He was a beloved member of the church and a pillar in the community. His love for music was evident in his daily life, from the way he sang in the choir to the way he taught others to sing. He was always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. Dr. Shook is guest evangelist at church

On Sept. 1, 1982, Dr. Wallace L. Shook arrived at the First United Methodist Church in Carthage to lead an evangelistic campaign. Dr. Shook, a well-known evangelist, is known for his dynamic preaching and his ability to connect with people of all ages. He was a graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and later served as the president of several universities, including Abilene Christian University.

This campaign marked the first time that Dr. Shook had visited the church, and it was held in the month of September, which is traditionally a time of spiritual renewal and reflection. The campaign included several services that were well-attended by the community.

Dr. Shook is known for his dedication to spreading the message of the gospel and his commitment to helping people find their way to Christ. His visit to Carthage was a significant event for the community, and it provided an opportunity for many to hear the message of the gospel and to experience the power of the Holy Spirit.

When our three kittens were growing up, if I real quickly had something we needed to do, I could often hear them small meow meow meow. I thought they hadn’t heard me. But they did. Then one day I was in the den doing my own thing and suddenly, they all ran over and started to look for something. I finally realized it was my hat. After that, I knew they had heard me.

When we step making a decision, we need to consider all the options carefully. Tula Biggs

WE HONOR ST. PATRICK BEST BY BRINGING SOMEONE TO PRAY

It is time to search our wardrobes for some green apparel in which to proclaim our Irish ancestry whether real or assumed for the day. However, we might also remember the origin of this occasion named for St. Patrick, who made a great journey to Ireland in an effort to persuad people to worship God. In fact, he was so effective in his efforts, that the result is shown by the fact that there are, to this day, no such help in our area by inviting friends, neighbors or even family members to accompany us to our House of Worship. The offer of a ride or perhaps the convenience of a return trip after worship will go a long way to remove all pressure resistance to the idea, and indeed, some of our most avid nonskiers have been convinced in this way. So let the green of St. Patrick's Day help you show your true colors by convincing others to learn about and share with you the blessings of God's love at first hand.

These merchants urge you to attend the church of your choice this Sunday!
