Elysian Fields home burglarized
Suspects arrested following manhunt

A dream of a better life in America ended in tragedy for a woman and her son.

The Gard family lived in a house located on a quiet street in Elysian Fields.

As they slept, they were unaware of the intruders who had entered their home.

The suspects were caught, and the Gard family was safe once again.

Tragedy doubles as rescue attempt fails

A man was injured in the rescue attempt.

The man, who was helping to evacuate the building, was hit by a falling object.

He was taken to the hospital, but his injuries were not serious.

Gratitude expressed

The editor wrote to say that the postmark on the letter we previously received was not clear. The postmark was from April 8, 1986, which indicates that the letter was sent on April 8, 1986. The editor also asked if there was any mention of a certain date or event in the letter.

Chapman challenged

Chapman's position and policy were on the school board, Chapman said. He noted that as a parent and former school board member, he has been involved in the local school system for many years. Chapman said he believes there is a need for more input from parents in school board decisions.

Chapman added that he has been involved in the community in various capacities, including serving on boards and committees. He said he is committed to improving the quality of education in the community.

Chapman concluded by expressing his concerns about the current situation and urged the school board to consider the perspectives of parents and the community in making decisions.

Chapman added that he believes the school board needs to be more transparent and open to feedback from the community.

Chapman further stated that he is concerned about the lack of representation from parents in the school board meetings and urged the school board to consider incorporating more parent perspectives into the decision-making process.

Chapman concluded by emphasizing the importance of community involvement in shaping the future of education in the community.

Chapman added that he is committed to working with the school board to address these concerns and ensure that the needs of the community are being met.

Chapman thanked the editor for the opportunity to express his views and encourage continued dialogue on these important issues.

PANOLA COUNTY POST

Just as it was 150 years ago

It's tea time on the city square

by SALLY LIPSEY

A new tradition is emerging in downtown Carthage, offering a glimpse into the past and creating a unique experience for visitors and locals alike. The Tea Time on the Square initiative, started by a local group of women, is now in its third year. Every Saturday afternoon, from March to October, a tea is served on the steps of the Carthage Courthouse.

The tradition began in 1858, when the courthouse was first built, and continues to this day. The tea is open to all, and a donation is requested. The proceeds from the tea are used to support local charities and organizations.

Ladies of the Tea Time on the Square

A group of women has been organizing the annual tea on the courthouse steps since 1990. They are dedicated to preserving a piece of local history and bringing people together.

THE DATES MAY CHANGE
BUT THE MESSAGE REMAINS THE SAME

The least we will celebrate this Sunday is the month. We now realize the approximate date is the end of May. Where people once numbered the days, now we count the weeks. The time is right for a celebration of the spirit and the soul. This celebration is not about dates, but about the message. The message is the same, and we remain the same. Now, in hope that all may be moved towards a better place in life, the world, and each other, we can make the world a better place.

These merchants urge you to attend the church of your choice this Sunday!
