Cause of child's death ruled "location"

Carthage police say they don't know why the child's death occurred in Carthage. The infant was found "location" behind the residence where the child died.

The autopsy report completed by the Carthage police say the child had been "location" in the residence. The report said the child had been "location" in the residence, but did not provide any further details.

The report also said the child had been "location" in the residence, but did not provide any further details.

The report concluded the death was caused by "location" and that the child had been "location" in the residence.

Power knocked out

Thunderstorms arrive

Thunderstorms continue to strike the area, causing power outages and heavy rain. The National Weather Service has issued a flash flood watch for the area.

The storms have knocked out power in many areas, causing disruptions to local businesses and residents.

Thieves break into two homes in Carthage

Two homes in Carthage were broken into last night, according to the Carthage police department. Officers responded to the homes around 10:30 p.m. and found that both had been forced open.

At the time of the break-ins, a third home in Carthage was also broken into, but there were no reports of any theft.

Police investigate grocery robbery

Carthage police say a man was robbed in the Carthage Hardware store yesterday. The man was threatened with a knife and forced to hand over his money.

The suspect fled the scene with the money.

Police investigate home invasion

A home invasion occurred in Carthage yesterday afternoon. The suspect forced his way into the residence and threatened the homeowner with a knife.

The homeowner was able to escape safely.

State Sen. Ed Howard will become lobbyist

State Sen. Ed Howard, a member of the Tennessee Senate, has announced that he will be a lobbyist for the next two years.

Howard served as a state senator for 10 years before retiring to become a lobbyist.

"I'm excited to have the opportunity to work on behalf of the state and its citizens," Howard said.

"I'll be able to use my experience and knowledge to help advocate for Tennessee's interests in the halls of Washington."
Howard resigns position

According to city officials, a long list of names has been submitted to the present Commission for possible consideration. The Board of Aldermen met in closed session last week, but are understood to have taken no action on the Harold Brown Resignation letter submitted to Alderman Brown by Alderman David's letter to the Board of Aldermen. The Board is expected to take action on the matter at its next meeting.

Carolina City Mayor Charlie Thomas desired personal information on the names. He said, "I have seen two names before the Carolina City Commissioner and there are a lot of names. I mean the city could appoint a Federal judge."

Nestle’s Junior’s Bistro announces big tax bill

Nestle’s Junior’s Bistro, located in the heart of the city, has been hit with a massive tax bill. The company has been ordered to pay over $1 million in back taxes, which will likely force them to lay off employees and close their doors.

Paperwork needed, rent due

When PANOLA COUNTY Post office workers went on strike last week, the city was forced to take action. The city has since hired new workers and is now looking for ways to reduce costs and improve efficiency.

Cotton's is now open to serve you

Statement: PANOLA COUNTY Post

Cotton’s, a new store in the heart of the city, is now open to serve the community. The store offers a wide variety of products, including groceries, clothing, and household items.

You don’t have to be in office to inaugurate a tax cut.

As individuals, we can’t do much about the tax system, but we can certainly make it easier for the average taxpayer. PANOLA COUNTY Post and the Longview Savings Bank offer a range of financial services, including a variety of loan products.

Agricultural Concerns

Ocie Westmoreland recognizes the problems relating to our agricultural industry and the fact that it is easier for young people to enter this aging field. Agriculture requires large capital investments and when the value of products remains low, the poor returns tend to deter entry into this industry. Westmoreland also has the continued economic conditions as a threat to the existing family farming units in our district.

Large farm receipts for 1985 approached the $200 million mark in District 10 alone. Since dollars generated by farms tend to circulate in the local economy more than dollars generated by other industries, the fate of our agricultural base affects us all.

Westmoreland understands our problems and wants to help.

Elected Ocie Westmoreland State Representative, District 10, he's a strong, experienced leader who has an interest in all of our needs.

Music and worship are very important in my church. We can easily forget how much music and worship influence us. As a church, we try to make sure that we have a good balance between both. Worship can bring us together and help us to connect with God. Music, on the other hand, can help us to express our feelings and connect with others.

A COMET LIGHTS A BRILLIANT TRAIL ACROSS THE NIGHT SKY

For the past several months we have been treated to a beautiful space spectacle in the heavens, known as Halley's Comet. This is an enigmatic wonder of our solar system that erupts only once every 76 years, and as many of us have learned, it was worth waiting for. However, it represents more than just an awe-inspiring show in the night sky for you may have missed it, a reminder of the majesty of God's Creation. Moreover, it is a reminder of the abundant resources that enable us to follow the workings of the universe, to the extent that we receive advance notice of such celestial events as comets, eclipses, meteor showers, etc. So at your House of Worship and while gazing at the sky, thank God for all the gifts to us, within which lies the wonder of His creation and our ability to understand them.

These merchants urge you to attend the church of your choice this Sunday!
