Wheat to head Carthage schools

BY CHUCK BUTLER

Pilot/Observer correspondent for personnel of the Carthage Independent School District Board of Education. Wheat, a 1977 graduate of Carthage High School, has taught and coached at Carthage since 1982.

Wheat's new position will be effective immediately after his retirement from teaching and coaching. He will continue to teach and coach until he retires from teaching and coaching.

Wheat has been an active member of the Carthage community for many years. He has served on the Board of Education for several years and has been involved in many community organizations.

Wheat's appointment was announced by the Board of Education at its regular meeting on Tuesday evening. The Board of Education unanimously approved Wheat's appointment.

Wheat attended Carthage High School and Carthage Junior College. He received his bachelor's degree in education from the University of Texas at Austin.

Wheat is married to Sue Wheat and they have two children, Sara and David.

Radio staff out of COPE

Boy Scouts at the George H. Wells Scout Reservation near Lake Mineral Wells have a new challenge. The National Park Service is expected to close the COPE, or Challenging Outdoor Physical Environment program, this summer.

COPE is a program designed to help young people develop their physical fitness and self-confidence. The program is sponsored by the National Park Service and the Boy Scouts of America.

The COPE program has been in operation for over 30 years. During that time, thousands of young people have participated in the program. The program is designed for boys age 14 to 17 and is open to both boys and girls.

Hospital employees get 3 percent raise

Employees at Panola General Hospital will receive a 3 percent raise in their salaries next year. The raise is the result of negotiations conducted between the hospital administration and the hospital's bargaining unit.

The raise will be retroactive to January 1, 1986, and will apply to all employees of the hospital. The hospital administration and the hospital's bargaining unit have agreed to a new three-year contract.

Local citizens honored

Four Panola County residents were honored at the recent annual meeting of the Panola County Chamber of Commerce. The awards were presented to the following individuals:

Judge Robert W. Hightower was presented with the Business Person of the Year Award.

Artie G. Moore was presented with the Volunteer of the Year Award.

The W. E. Black Award was presented to Jim Hightower.

The Community Service Award was presented to the Carthage Chamber of Commerce.

Local man jailed for hit and run

A local man was arrested late yesterday evening on a charge of hit and run. The suspect, 32-year-old John Hightower, was driving a car that struck a pedestrian in the 500 block of East Main Street.

The pedestrian, 65-year-old Mr. John Doe, was taken to the hospital with non-life-threatening injuries. Hightower was taken into custody and charged with hit and run.

 Authorities have released no further information at this time.

Scouts cope with project COPE

The last week of summer camp brought about a major change for the scouts as they gathered in the end of a new outdoor program. Project COPE, a week-long adventure in the wilderness, kicked off with a high-energy opening ceremony, where the scouts were welcomed by the leaders and given an introduction to the project. The scouts were divided into small groups and assigned to different activities that would challenge their physical, mental, and emotional limits. The project was designed to help the scouts develop leadership skills, teamwork, and problem-solving abilities.

The scouts were put through various physical challenges, including climbing, hiking, and swimming, which helped them build confidence and overcome fears. They also participated in activities that required them to work as a team, solving puzzles and completing tasks together. The project ended with a closing ceremony, where the scouts reflected on their experiences and shared their feelings with each other.

The project COPE was a success, and the scouts were proud of what they accomplished. They looked forward to their next adventure, planning to return to the camp and continue learning new skills.

Scouts from Tyler, Lufkin, Palestine, and Athens, Texas, were on site for the week.
Rangers labeled scoundrels, saviors

Legendary Rangers had captivated the imagination of the people of Texas for decades. They were known for their bravery and loyalty to the state. The current issue highlights the range of emotions the Rangers have provoked over time, from admiration to criticism.

In the early days, the Rangers were seen as heroes, protecting the territory from enemies. However, as the years went by, their actions became more controversial, leading to debates about their effectiveness and morality.

Honorary Luncheon recently given by the state Farm Bureau Women to a member of the Panola County Domestic Science class was held on Thursday, May 23rd, at the Panola Country Club. The program included a dinner followed by speeches, a musical program, and recognition of the优秀 students in the class.

The students were presented with certificates of recognition and were thanked for their hard work and dedication to the Domestic Science program. The speaker for the event was Mrs. A. M. Brown, a well-known teacher in the field of Domestic Science.

The event was a great success, and the students were very happy to receive the recognition for their efforts. The Panola Country Club provided a wonderful location for the event, and the food was delicious. The evening was filled with fellowship and encouragement, as the students were reminded of the importance of their work and the impact it has on their communities.

Nell and Mary Thompson, who have been married for 56 years, celebrated their anniversary on May 1st. The couple, who met while attending high school, have three children and 10 grandchildren. They attribute their long marriage to the fact that they have always been able to communicate with each other.

The Thompsons are active in their community, volunteering at the local hospital and food bank. They also enjoy traveling and golfing together. In fact, they have just returned from a trip to Scotland, where they played golf and sampled the local cuisine.

The couple has received many awards and honors over the years, including the Community Service Award from the local rotary club. They have also been featured in several magazines and newspapers for their dedication to their family and their community.

Upsets Chaparral Construction, 11-8

Palmer’s scrambles softball race

Steve Robichaud led Chaparral Construction to a 11-8 win over the Lions, scoring the game’s first 11 runs. The Lions kept it close with 8 runs of their own, but Robichaud and his teammates were too much for them. Robichaud’s performance was key, hitting a home run and driving in 3 runs. With the win, Chaparral moves to 8-2 in the league. The Lions fall to 2-8.

Girls softball

Fillies tip Red, 12-9

The Fillies defeated the Red 12-9 in a hard-fought game. The Fillies scored 9 runs in the first inning alone, taking an early lead that they never looked back on. The Red fought back with 9 runs of their own, but it wasn’t enough to overcome the Fillies. Next game: Fillies vs. Blue, 15-7.

Hi- Efficiency Makes Rheem the Right Choice!
Allison raises Longhorns as novelty

This story began simply, about four hot steers.
Those steers were the seed of a symbol of Texas, an aging Longhorn steer.

Like bullets, Longhorns were once Prime, once the most prized. Distinguished from other cattle breed by their horns, the Longhorn once roamed the Mesquite forests of Texas. But as the state grew and developed, the Longhorn was pushed to the brink.

When Allison set out to raise Longhorns, he had a vision of bringing back the glory of these magnificent beasts. He started with just a few steers, but his passion and dedication quickly grew.

The Longhorns soon became a symbol of pride, not just for Texas, but for Allison as well. They became a reminder of the state's rich history and its commitment to preserving its heritage.

With each passing year, Allison's herd grew, and so did his love for these majestic animals. The Longhorns became a symbol of resilience, a testament to the strength and spirit that have defined Texas for centuries.

For Allison, raising Longhorns was more than just a hobby. It was a way of life, a connection to the past, and a commitment to ensuring that these iconic symbols of Texas would continue to thrive for generations to come. And with each new calf, Allison's legacy lives on, a timeless reminder of the enduring power of the spirit of Texas.
