PANAMA CITY

South Carolina, the theme for this year's event, was celebrated in a variety of ways. The weekend featured a pageant, fashion show, and a number of social events for attendees. The city's residents and visitors alike enjoyed the festivities, which included a parade and a grand finale that featured live music and fireworks. The event was a huge success, with thousands of people attending and enjoying the activities. Next year, the city plans to continue the tradition and bring even more fun and excitement to the community.

Minister pastors two Methodist churches

By GILLY ROBERTS

I want to tell you about two church groups that hold services at Pine Grove Methodist Church in Carthage. The group at Pine Grove is the United Methodist Church and the other is the United Church of Christ.

The United Methodist Church, which is located on Pine Grove Road, is made up of members from many different walks of life. The church has a strong commitment to social justice and community service. The minister, Rev. David Porterfield, is known for his warm and welcoming personality. He is also a strong advocate for local issues and has been involved in many community activities.

The United Church of Christ, which is located on Church Street, is a smaller congregation. The minister, Rev. Ava Porterfield, is known for her passion for scripture and her ability to connect with members of all ages. She is also a strong advocate for justice and equality.

Both churches have a strong commitment to community service and are actively involved in local events and activities. They also offer a variety of programs and services for their members, including Sunday school, Bible study, and community outreach programs.

Gospel singing scheduled

A gospel singing, sponsored by the Pine Grove Church, is scheduled for next Sunday. The church will be at 9 a.m. at the Pine Grove Church. A breakfast will be served at 8:30 a.m. at the church. The event will feature a variety of gospel singers and musicians, as well as a message from Rev. Ava Porterfield.

Church Calendar

The Church Calendar is presented as a public service. For more information, check with the church in question. The calendar is updated weekly. The church listed in the calendar is the source of the church's information.
