Extension homemakers meet, discuss achievement day

“There are no secrets to success,” said Extension homemakers president Martha Wiersma, as she opened the meeting. “The key is to work hard and never give up.”

Wiersma gave a report on the activities of the homemakers club, which has been working on various community projects. She highlighted the club’s recent efforts to clean up a local park and the success of the annual bake sale.

The meeting adjourned, but the homemakers promised to continue their hard work to make the community a better place.

Eye care project to benefit elderly

The Texas Eye Care Project, a program that provides glasses for the elderly, is in need of volunteers. Each volunteer will receive a kit with all the necessary tools to provide eye exams and distribute glasses. Those interested can contact the project at 555-1234.

Willis reconsiders city resignation

BY TED LEACH

Willis was the mayor of Pineville and had been in office for 10 years. He had recently announced his resignation, but now he is reconsidering.

City increases taxes by 5 cents

County adopts budget, raises taxes 31 percent

Pineville County will not have an excess budget, but has adopted a budget that increases taxes by 4.5 percent. The budget includes funding for essential services such as roads, schools, and public safety.

Bus Company to pay hostages medical bills

Carthage City Mayor Charles Thomas told City Council that the bus company will pay for the medical bills of the hostages. The company was charged with kidnapping.

The special election because of the death of Sen. Harris Wofford will be held on Tuesday, May 15. The special election will be the same day as the primary election for the nomination of a Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate.

The Pennsylvania State Supreme Court on Friday, April 27, ordered that the primary election be held on May 15 instead of July 18. The court ruled that the primary election could not be held on July 18 because of the special election.

The Special Election Committee, which is responsible for organizing the special election, has scheduled the special election for May 15.

"I had a somewhat difficult time in the months leading up to the decision," Willis said. "I was thinking about it a lot. I had a lot of people who were close to me. I didn't want to make a decision that would hurt them." Willis said he was not sure he would have made the same decision if the rules were different.

Mower rider finds complications

We've had a few mowers in the family now. Our first one was an old model and it was nothing compared to what we have now. The new mower runs smoothly, but it seems like we always have to deal with some sort of complication. Last week, the mower wouldn't start. We tried everything, but it just wouldn't budge. So, we had to call a professional. They fixed it, but the next day, the mower started making strange noises. We thought maybe it was just a temporary issue, but it happened again the next day. We tried to figure out what was going on, and then it happened again the next day. It was really frustrating. Finally, we went back to the dealer and they completely replaced the mower. It's now running like a dream. We've learned our lesson: always keep an emergency fund.
Fall gardening time at hand

By Mark C. Dubb
Cooperate Times-Advocate

Although there is still plenty of winter weather left, it is the time to get started on your fall gardening. A variety of vegetables, such as broccoli, cauliflower, cabbage, and potatoes, can be planted now and will be ready for harvest later in the season. Fall is a great time to plant vegetables like carrots, beets, and radishes, which can be harvested throughout the winter.

Bulldogs take mile run in stride

Reed sets pace in Reynolds Mile

Six members of the Bulldog relay team, working to their limit, had a strong performance in the mile run on Monday afternoon. Reed ran the first leg of the 1000-meter race in 2:17.5, followed by 11-0.3, 12-0.3, and 13-0.3. The team's total time was 3:10.6, giving them the victory.

The team consisted of Reed, 11-0.3, 12-0.3, and 13-0.3. They were followed by several other relay teams from different schools. The Bulldog team was able to maintain a strong lead throughout the race, despite some tough competition.

At colleges in four state-area

16 Carthage exes have football scholarships

When the college begins fall practice this week, 16 Carthage exes will be on the football team. The list includes players from various sports teams, including track and field, basketball, and soccer. The team is composed of players from all over the country, and is expected to have a strong showing this season.

The team is led by quarterback Jack Parker, a senior who has been starting for two years. Parker is joined by a strong group of wide receivers, including juniors Tom Smith and Tim Johnson. The defense is powered by senior linebacker John Brown, who has been a standout for the past two seasons.

The team will face several tough opponents this season, including teams from neighboring states. The Bulldogs are looking forward to a challenging season, but are confident in their abilities.

Pilgrim speaks at Kiwanis Club

"In an effort to bring Pilgrim's message of love, hope and fellowship," said Mr. Pilgrim, "we have selected a select few people who will be attending this event." Mr. Pilgrim, the oldest child of seven children, said that the event is a chance to "open the doors" to the community and to share the message of hope.

As the speaker, Mr. Pilgrim focused on the importance of love and the need for community support. He emphasized the need to "reach out" to others and to be open to new experiences. Mr. Pilgrim's message resonated with the audience, and many expressed their appreciation for his words.
