Panola escapee captured

By GARY BRUCE

"Me and my dog came to the courthouse. We have a jail ranger there and a judge and we were taken in by the sheriff's office. They let me know I was going to get some help. I was taken to the hospital. I had a broken arm and I wasuscated," said Jimmy H. Smith, 28, of the town of Leston. Smith was taken into custody by authorities on Thursday night. (Deputy sheriff for the county of Leston.)

The case involved a man who escaped from the Panola County Jail on Wednesday. The man, who is wanted for a parole violation, was located in the yard of a house in Leston. He was taken into custody by deputies and transported to the Panola County Jail.

Many helped make school banner event

"The event was a success," said Louie Grecan of the 19th Annual School Banner Event. "And it was great to see so many students and parents attending." The banner was designed by local artists and was unveiled at the event. The banner was later sold to raise funds for the school.

Over 600 see cooking school

Mary Stewart walked away from the annual Cooking School event at the Panola County Fairgrounds. Stewart and her husband, Robert, have been attending the cooking school for the past 10 years and have enjoyed the variety of classes offered.

Chamber targets members

The Chamber of Commerce has set a goal of increasing membership by 20% this year. The Chamber is seeking new members from a variety of industries.

Texans endured depression, crime

Despite stiff alimony battles and love affairs, the state of Texas remained relatively stable during the Great Depression. While the economy suffered from the stock market crash of 1929, Texas managed to avoid the worst effects of the depression due to its strong agricultural base. However, crime rates increased as people struggled to make ends meet.

Keep the doors locked

Once again Thursday night the doors of Sanger High School were opened to the public for a series of events. The purpose of these events was to provide an opportunity for the community to get involved in the school and to support our students.

Local citizen John Smith, who is a former student of Sanger High School, said, “I think it’s important for the community to be involved in our schools. It helps build a sense of community and support for our students.”

Six-year itch aimed at 1986

The “Six-year itch” is a national phenomenon in which people feel restless after six years of marriage. Many politicians believe that this is due to the increased cost of living and the pressure to move up in the social ladder. However, some experts argue that the “Six-year itch” is a natural part of the human experience and that it allows people to find new sources of happiness.

Six-year itch is the sixth anniversary of your wedding. It is a time when couples may feel restless and start to think about new relationships. Some couples may even start to feel like they are ready to start a new chapter in their lives. This can be a difficult time for many couples, but it is also an opportunity for them to work through their issues and find a way to make their marriage work.

Hallsville, bows-10, 3-0

By TED LEACH

When the East Texas Conference made it clear that the week's first big game was going to be a contest between two teams that had not yet played each other, the residents of Hallsville decided to make the most of the opportunity. They turned out in droves to watch the game, and the atmosphere was electric.

The game was a close one, with the two teams neck and neck for most of the game. However, with just a few minutes left on the clock, the East Texans managed to pull ahead and secure the victory. The crowd erupted in cheers and applause as the final whistle blew.

Following the game, fans of both teams gathered at the local bar to discuss the game and enjoy a few drinks. The atmosphere was lively and energetic, with fans from both sides shouting and cheering.

Overall, it was a great day for football and for the residents of Hallsville. The community came together to enjoy the game and to support their teams, and everyone left feeling proud and inspired.

HILLSVILLE—Coach Doug Fleenor's Hillsville football team are headed in the right direction heading into the season opener this Friday.

Hillsville won their season opener last Friday night by winning 13-0 over a tough Wytheville team.

"We were excited to get the season started," said Fleenor.
"The players were motivated and they did a great job of preparing for the game. I think we have a good chance of winning against Wytheville."

Steel shot proposal effects area

A steel shot proposal is set to be proposed in the area. The proposal would affect the area in several ways. The steel shot would be used to reinforce the area and prevent further erosion. The steel shot would also be used to create a barrier to prevent water from entering the area.

The proposal has been met with mixed reactions from the community. Some residents are concerned about the impact on the environment, while others see it as a necessary step to protect the area.

The proposal will be reviewed by the city council before a final decision is made. The council will consider the feedback from the community and any environmental concerns before making a decision.

March of Dimes

There is a March of Dimes event scheduled for this weekend. The event is a walkathon to raise money for the March of Dimes Foundation. The foundation supports research and care for babies born with birth defects.

The event will take place on Saturday morning. Participants can register online or at the event. The registration fee is $20 per person. There will be food and entertainment at the event.

The March of Dimes Foundation has been supporting research and care for babies born with birth defects for over 70 years. The foundation has funded research that has led to significant advances in neonatal care and has helped save the lives of many babies.

Nightclub brawl leaves one dead

A 23-year-old Garthage man was shot and killed during a fight on a local nightclub's patio early Sunday morning, according to a report from the Police Chief and the Garthage News.

Police received a call at 1:07 a.m. from a local bar in Garthage, reporting a fight. The caller said a man had been shot and was lying on the ground in front of the bar.

Police responded to the scene and found a man on the ground with a gunshot wound. The man was transported to the hospital, where he later died.

The Garthage Police Chief said the investigation is ongoing and that anyone with information is encouraged to come forward.

The identity of the victim was not released at the time of this report.

Chlorine leak hospitalizes 22

By DOROTHY REVELL

Chlorine leak at the Garthage water treatment plant on Saturday night hospitalizes 22 people. The Garthage Fire Department was called to the scene to help with the evacuation of the area around the plant.

The leak occurred at around 10 p.m. Saturday night and lasted for about an hour. The plant was shut down immediately and all employees were evacuated.

According to the Garthage Fire Department, 22 people were treated for respiratory distress, nausea, and dizziness. The individuals were taken to the Garthage Valley Hospital for further treatment.

The plant was closed for about three hours until it was confirmed that the chlorine levels had returned to normal.

Horse show planned

The Garthage Booster Club will host its annual horse show on Saturday, September 17th, at 7 p.m. in the Garthage Civic Center. The show will feature a variety of horse breeds and disciplines.

The event is open to the public and admission is $5 per person. Children under 12 are free when accompanied by an adult. The show will also include a silent auction and a raffle.

Jimerson resigns as CISD board seat

Jimerson has also been active in the local community as a member of the Panola County Chamber of Commerce and the Panola County United Way. He served on the CISD Board for three years and was re-elected in 2018.

Jimerson said he decided to resign due to personal reasons and to focus on his family. He expressed his gratitude to the community for their support during his time on the board.

Chamber teams blast for more members

Four teams are lined up and ready to go for the Chamber's Annual Cookoff Challenge. Teams will be announced during the event on September 22nd at 7 p.m. at the Civic Center in Garthage.

The event is open to the public and admission is free. Teams will compete in a variety of categories, including Best Overall Dish, Best Appetizer, Best Dessert, and Best Presentation.

The Garthage Chamber of Commerce is looking to increase its membership to 100 members by the end of the year. To join, visit the Chamber's website or call 210-555-5555.
