THE BORN LOSER

POLITICAL

There's no good reason why Republicans can't do something about the political deadlock in Washington. The trouble is that the Democrats are the ones who don't want to do anything about it. They just want to sit back and let the Republicans do all the work. The Republicans, on the other hand, are too busy fighting each other to do anything about the problems of the country. It's a mess, and it's just getting worse.

PUBLIC

The problem with the public is that they don't want to listen to anything anyone has to say anymore. They just want to complain about everything and be negative. It's like they think if they complain loudly enough, someone will listen to them and fix things. But that's not how it works. The only way to get things fixed is to actually do something about them. If everyone just complained, nothing would get done.

PREVIEW NIGHT SCHEDULED

Chapman introduces news relief bill

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Rep. Chapman announced today that he is sponsoring a bill that would allow newspapers to publish news releases more frequently.

"This bill is a great opportunity for newspapers to provide more timely information to their readers," Chapman said. "It will allow newspapers to publish news releases more frequently and in a more timely manner."

Chapman said the bill would allow newspapers to publish news releases up to three times per week, instead of the current two times per week. The bill would also allow newspapers to publish news releases on weekends.

"I believe this bill will be beneficial for newspapers," Chapman said. "It will give newspapers more flexibility to provide timely information to their readers."

Chapman said he expects the bill to pass the House easily. He said he is hoping to have the bill passed by the end of the month.

"I am confident that this bill will be successful," Chapman said. "I believe it will be well received by newspapers and their readers."

Dogs begin new season

By TED LEACH

Nearly 100 dogs lined up at the starting line of the annual race in Carthage before a crowd of cheering onlookers. The dogs, representing various breeds and sizes, were ready to take on the challenging course.

Many of the dogs were wearing colorful bandanas, which added to the festive atmosphere of the event. The dogs raced down the course, navigating the twists and turns with agility and determination.

The dogs were judged on their speed and participation in the race. The winner was announced at the end of the race, and the dogs were awarded certificates and prizes for their efforts.

A special award was given to the dog that had the best costume, and the winner received a dog bowl and a year's supply of dog food.

McKinney has replaced Lindberg Eula when the first place 8-AAA Akins was upset by the hands of McKinney.

The Lions are coming off a dominating 21-7 victory over the Akins Blue Devils.

The Lions are led by quarterback Jimmy Morrow who has thrown for over 300 yards and rushed for over 100 yards in two games.

McKinney has a balanced offense with running back Teddy Rose and wide receiver John Johnson leading the way.

The Lions defense has been strong, allowing only 10 points per game.

New season begins Thursday

Frosh face Lions in opener

Carriage Creek has relied heavily on its ground game to keep the Red Jackets on the field in most of their victories, and the Red Jackets will look to continue that trend in their opener against McKinney.

On the other hand, the Lions will rely on their air attack to keep the Red Jackets from scoring.

Traditionally, the Frosh team has been a strong unit for Carriage Creek, and they will likely make an impact in their opener.

Through our partners, Thomas and other local businesses have donated funds for the Red Jackets to purchase new uniforms and equipment.

The Frosh team will wear their new uniforms for the first time on Thursday against McKinney.
