Eagle Scout honors presented Tuesday

Two Scouts were presented with Eagle Scout ribbons Wednesday by the Chief of Honor of District 2, Robert Wood, at the regular meeting of the Cinco Ranch High School Scout Troop 203. The Chief of Honor is the highest rank attainable by the Eagle Scout. The award was given to John Daniel Andrews, 13, and Jimmy Scott, 14, both of Cinco Ranch High School. The ceremony was held in the school's auditorium.

The two boys have been active in their community and have performed various projects. Andrews, the first recipient, has been involved in a number of community service projects, including the construction of a playground and the beautification of the school grounds. Scott, the second recipient, has been involved in a number of educational projects, including the development of a computer lab and the establishment of a science fair.

The ceremony was attended by friends, family, and school officials. The principal of the school, Dr. Robert Wood, presented the ribbons to the two boys, along with a certificate of achievement. The ceremony concluded with a reception for the two boys, their families, and the guests.

The presentation of Eagle Scout ribbons is a significant milestone in the life of a Scout, as it represents a commitment to community service and a dedication to lifelong learning. The Eagle Scout program is one of the most prestigious programs in the Boy Scouts of America, and it is a source of pride and accomplishment for the recipients and their families.

The two boys were selected for the honor by their Scout leaders, who have been impressed by their dedication and commitment to their community. The ceremony was held in the school's auditorium, and it was attended by friends, family, and school officials. The principal of the school, Dr. Robert Wood, presented the ribbons to the two boys, along with a certificate of achievement. The ceremony concluded with a reception for the two boys, their families, and the guests.

College preview night successful

Two dozen colleges represented

As over two dozen colleges to visit, the College Night was a success. A large number of students attended the event, and several colleges were represented. The College Night was a great opportunity for students to explore different options and make informed decisions about their future.

Mental illness gives warning

When a single person of normal mental health is found guilty of a crime, it is not unusual for that person's family and friends to react with shock and disbelief. However, some experts believe that mental illness can be a factor in violent behavior.

Thanksgiving is a time for family, food, and gratitude. It is a day to come together and express our appreciation for the blessings in our lives. To celebrate this special occasion, many communities organize events and activities that bring people of different faiths together.

Here are some details about an interfaith Thanksgiving event that is being held in a local community:

Event Details
- Date: Tuesday, November 23, 2021
- Time: 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
- Location: Local Community Center (Address TBA)

Features
- Morning Spiritual Gathering: A multi-faith interfaith service will feature prayers, songs, and readings from various faith traditions.
- Community Dinner: Following the service, there will be a community dinner where attendees can enjoy a meal together and engage in conversations about thanksgiving and gratitude.

Participating Faiths
- Christianity
- Judaism
- Islam
- Hinduism
- Buddhism

Purpose
This event aims to foster a sense of unity and understanding among people of different faiths. It is a opportunity to celebrate Thanksgiving and to learn from each other's traditions.

If you are interested in attending this event or would like more information, please contact the local community center.

Strength For Living

BY JERRY BURMAN

In this busy world, we often feel overwhelmed by the constant demands and pressures. It is important to take time to recharge and find strength within ourselves. Here are some tips to help you find strength and resilience during challenging times:

1. Exercise: Engage in regular physical activity to boost your energy levels and improve your mood.
2. Meditation: Practice mindfulness and meditation to calm your mind and reduce stress.
3. Healthy Diet: Eat a balanced diet to support your physical and mental health.
4. Sleep: Ensure you get enough restful sleep to promote recovery and rejuvenation.
5. Social Support: Connect with friends and family to share your feelings and gain support.
6. Professional Help: If you are struggling, consider seeking help from a therapist or counselor.

Remember, it is okay to ask for help and to take time for yourself. By taking care of yourself, you are investing in your own well-being and future.
