County may cut budget

By Sherwood Carter
Staff Writer

Panola County Officials have serious concerns about the proposed $5.4 million budget for the county. The county budget, which includes a 2% salary increase for county employees, is expected to be cut to $5.2 million. The reduction in the proposed budget is expected to come from the sale of reserves and other savings measures.

The proposed budget includes a 2% salary increase for county employees. However, the county is facing a budget shortfall of about $2 million, which is expected to be covered by the sale of reserves and other savings measures.

The county is considering several options to reduce the budget, including the sale of reserves and other savings measures. The county is also considering the possibility of cutting services and programs that are not essential.

Construction begins at Baker-Koonce

Construction of the Baker-Koonce addition is progressing smoothly. The addition is expected to be completed by the end of the year. The addition will include new classrooms, a new gym, and other facilities.

Industrial foundation attracting prospects

Carthage is a growing industrial hub, attracting new businesses and industries. The city has a number of incentives for businesses, including tax breaks and other financial assistance.

The city is also home to several educational institutions, including Panola College and the University of North Texas. The city is considered a great place to live and work, with a strong sense of community and a high-quality of life.

Occupancy tax board to adapt 87-88 budget

The Panola County Occupancy Tax Board is considering adapting the 1987-1988 budget. The board is expected to discuss the budget at its next meeting, which is scheduled for next week. The board is considering several options to adapt the budget, including reducing some services and programs.

Thank you for the support

Dear Sir: Century

During the regular session of the Texas Legislature, your correspondent suffered a severe misgiving. Support for the Legislature helped create an atmosphere which fed a misgiving. And I felt that situation should be changed. I suggest it could be changed by creating a new atmosphere which would foster support for the Legislature. I believe that such a change is needed for the Legislature to continue to function effectively. Thank you for your support.

Catherine, an average ballet student, can put on the most beautiful productions of the world without a single application. But she still has to go to class and practice every day. She even has to study ballet and music theory. Can you imagine how hard it is to put on a production without any applications? It seems like Catherine's life is not very easy.

Lloyd Jones, the Houston Astros' top prospect, is scheduled to make his first start of the season against the Philadelphia Phillies on Monday, June 25, at 7:30 p.m. at Minute Maid Park.

Jones, who has been on the disabled list with a shoulder injury, will make his first start since June 18, when he left the game against the Los Angeles Dodgers with a left shoulder strain.

Jones has been out since June 21, when he was placed on the 10-day disabled list with a left shoulder strain. He has been limited to ground balls and is expected to return to the lineup sometime this week.

Jones is 2-2 with a 6.42 ERA in three major league starts this season. He had a 1.84 ERA in four minor league starts before being called up to the majors.

High-button shoes, Bavarian china, a broken rolling pin...

Auctioneer keeps 'em laughing—and bidding

By Charles Nobbe

The audience parted as the auctioneer made his way through the room. "Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to our first auction." He paused to allow a few moments of applause, and then continued, "Tonight we have a special item, a pair of high-button shoes." The room fell silent in anticipation. He pointed to a display case in the corner of the room. "These shoes are not just any pair. They were worn by a famous Bavarian tailor, known for his impeccable craftsmanship. Look at the quality and detail of these shoes!"

"But that's not all," he added, "these shoes have a history. They were worn by a Bavarian nobleman during a grand tournament in the early 1900s. To commemorate this event, the nobleman had these shoes made, and they are now up for auction."

The audience was captivated. "These shoes represent the very best of Bavarian craftsmanship and history," the auctioneer continued. "I predict a spirited bidding war, so let's get started!"
