Hospital district, leasing are options

By Dale Hamilton

The current trend to combine hospital and health planning areas has led to a lease agreement situation that might make it easier to create a hospital district. Absenteeism. Missoula, Montana, is the most recent state to pass the use of such agreements. Other states like Nebraska, Ohio, South Dakota, and Virginia are currently evaluating how to handle them.

Such agreements are being considered in many states as they attempt to address the issue of hospital debt. In Mont.

Carthage hosts ETCOG

By Jack T. McCaskill

Carthage was host to the semi-annual meeting of the East Texas Council of Governments (ETCOG) on Tuesday. Attendees included members of the ETCOG board of directors, representatives from the various county governments in East Texas, and other interested parties.

ETCOG is a regional council of governments that covers 32 counties in East Texas. The organization was established in 1953 and its primary purpose is to facilitate cooperation among local governments in the region. ETCOG provides a forum for county officials to share information, discuss issues, and work together on projects that benefit the entire region.

The meeting in Carthage was held to discuss various topics, including county budgets, economic development, and transportation issues. Attendees had the opportunity to network and exchange ideas with other representatives from their respective counties.

Cookoff to kickoff Potlatch festival

This year's Potlatch-Renaissance Cookoff was held on Saturday, October 10, and the event included a cookoff with various categories such as Best Appetizer, Best Main Course, and Best Dessert.

The cookoff was part of the Potlatch-Renaissance festival, which is a yearly event that celebrates the history and culture of Carthage. The festival features various activities, including a parade, a historical re-enactment, and a cookoff.

According to the cookoff's website, Entry forms and rules are available on their website. Participants are encouraged to try new recipes and dishes that showcase their culinary skills.

In addition to the cookoff, the Potlatch-Renaissance festival also includes a parade, a historical re-enactment, and a variety of other events and activities. Visitors can enjoy a range of activities, such as live music, arts and crafts, and food vendors.

Whether attending the cookoff or participating in the festival, visitors can immerse themselves in the rich history and culture of Carthage, which is known for its diverse community and vibrant events.

McAfee enters Pigman's Bait Shop

In a recent event, McAfee entered Pigman's Bait Shop, which is located in Carthage. Pigman's Bait Shop is a popular destination for fishing enthusiasts and those interested in outdoor activities.

McAfee was seen browsing through the shop, checking out the various fishing equipment and supplies available. The shop offers a wide range of products, including fishing rods, reels, tackle, and other related items.

The shop is known for its knowledgeable staff, who provide helpful advice to customers. Pigman's Bait Shop also offers fishing trips and guided tours, which are popular among visitors and locals alike.

The shop is located at 210 East Royce Street, Carthage, TX 75633. Visitors can stop by and check out the shop's offerings or call ahead to schedule a fishing trip or guided tour.

McAfee expressed his enthusiasm for the shop, stating that he was impressed by the quality of the products and the helpfulness of the staff. He plans to return to the shop in the future to continue his fishing adventures.

Overall, Pigman's Bait Shop is a great spot for anyone interested in fishing or outdoor activities. Visitors can expect a range of products and friendly service, ensuring a enjoyable experience.
Miss Jones is woman of year

Teresa M. Murphy, a member of the Arts Council, said the event recognized the contributions of women in the arts.

"This event is a celebration of the achievements of women in the arts," Murphy said. "It's an opportunity to highlight their talent and contributions to our community.

The ceremony was held at the Carthage Civic Center, where guests were treated to a performance by the Carthage High School choir. Attendees also enjoyed a buffet dinner provided by the Carthage Country Club.

Art and crafts festival slated

The 4th Annual Arts and Crafts Festival will be held on Sept. 23 at the Carthage Civic Center. The event will feature over 150 artists from around the region.

In addition to traditional crafts such as pottery and jewelry, the festival will also feature demonstrations of a wide variety of artistic disciplines, including woodworking, painting, and sculpture.

"Our goal is to bring together artists from all over the region and give them a platform to showcase their work," festival organizer John Smith said. "We hope to create a community atmosphere that celebrates the arts and encourages creativity.

A variety of food vendors will be on hand to provide refreshments, and a raffle will be held with prizes donated by local businesses.

The festival will run from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and admission is free to the public.

Train ride by moonlight enjoyed by CHS grads

By Thaddeus Neff

On Friday, May 5, a group of CHS graduates took a trip to the Texas A&M campus in College Station to attend the University of Texas at Austin graduation ceremony. The ride was organized by the Carthage High School Class of 2023, led by the Class President, John Jones.

The group boarded the train at 8 p.m. and rode through the night, arriving in College Station around 3 a.m. The event was open to all CHS graduates who had graduated in the past five years.

"This was an incredible experience," Jones said. "It was a chance for us to celebrate our accomplishments and kick off our college careers in a fun and unique way.

The train ride was just the beginning of the celebration. The next day, the graduates participated in the UT Austin graduation ceremony, where they received their diplomas and were recognized for their achievements.

"It was a truly unforgettable experience," Jones said. "I can't wait to see where our paths lead us next.

You remember how I said I would tell you about the trip I took to New York? Well, now I can tell you all about it. It was a great trip, and I had a lot of fun. I visited all the major landmarks, such as the Statue of Liberty, the Empire State Building, and Times Square. I also spent some time exploring the city and trying out some delicious food. It was a great trip, and I'm already planning my next one.

Davis says club is 'okay'

Jv's need confidence

San Diego didn't hesitate even after the easy victory over the Carthage junior varsity team. The Bulldogs needed a pulled together effort to pull the Carthage junior varsity team 3-0.

"We got a lot of confidence in the club," Davis said. "It was a good game by our club. The clubs are a lot better than Carthage." The number of goals scored by the club was a good sign that the club was headed in the right direction.

"Our club is definitely going to be better than Carthage. They have a lot of good players, but we are better," Davis said.

The club scored a goal early in the game when Davis kicked a penalty shot from the left side of the field. Davis kicked the ball into the left side of the goal and the ball shot past Carthage goalie and into the goal. The goal was the first of the day for the club.

The club continued to dominate possession and chances over Carthage. Davis scored a second goal in the second half when he was fouled in the box. Davis kicked a penalty shot from the left side of the field into the right side of the goal. The goal was the second of the day for the club.

The club scored a third goal on a penalty kick in the final minute of the game. Davis kicked the ball into the left side of the goal and the ball shot past the Carthage goalie. The goal was the third of the day for the club.

The club dominated possession and chances throughout the game. Davis had a lot of good passes and chances on goal. The club's defense was solid and they didn't allow Carthage many chances on goal.

The club's win over Carthage continued their good form and they are looking forward to the next game. The club is looking forward to the next game against a tough opponent.

Pear crop's a bumper, Zoe lucks out anyway

BY ALONZA STERREK

Last year was the high and this year was the low. It seems to me that you can't do anything right, it seems like that's the way it is. It always seems like you're just trying to catch up. So, I think we have to start thinking about what we're doing right and what we're doing wrong.
