PGH board: did they or didn’t they resign?

By Dorothy Harris

The Park County Health Board of Commissioners held its regular meeting Monday evening at the Park County Courthouse in Panola. The meeting was called to order by Chairman Harry Sizemore, who presided over the meeting.

The agenda for the meeting included discussion of several items, including the hiring of a new health officer and the purchase of new medical equipment.

Sizemore said that the board had considered several candidates for the position of health officer, but had not reached a decision yet.

The purchase of new medical equipment was also discussed, with the board approving the purchase of a new X-ray machine.

The meeting lasted approximately two hours, and included a public comment period at the end. The meeting adjourned at 8:30 p.m.

More than 6,700 attend
Potlatch crowd largest ever

The weather held clear again this year for the Annual Carthage Potlatch, which was held on Saturday, October 10th. The event featured a parade, a carnival, and a free movie screening.

The parade included floats from local businesses, as well as marching bands from Carthage High School and Carthage Junior High School. The carnival included a range of games and attractions, including a bouncy house and a mini golf course.

The free movie screening was held at the local movie theater, with the film being "The Wizard of Oz." The movie was well-received by the audience, and many families stayed to watch the film.

The event was organized by the Carthage Chamber of Commerce, and was attended by more than 6,700 people. The organizers were pleased with the turnout, and are already planning for next year’s event.

Free Halloween movie set

The Carthage Twin Cinema and Panola Newspapers have teamed up to bring a free movie show on Halloween night. The movie will be "The Mummy," and the screening will be held at the local movie theater. The event is free to all ages, and families are encouraged to attend.

The movie will begin at 7:00 p.m., and will include a costume contest for children. The contest will begin at 6:00 p.m., and will feature prizes for the best costumes.

The event is being sponsored by the Panola Chamber of Commerce, and is part of the ongoing efforts to promote tourism in the area.

Texas Republicans unified

By Linda Blizard
Texas Pioneers Association

Texas State Senator David W. Sterrett, a St. Louis, Missouri resident, has been named the first chairman of a new organization that will promote the interests of Texas Republicans unified in the national arena. The organization, called the Texas State Republican Federation, was formed in response to what Sterrett termed a "generational gap" in the party's ranks.

"We need a new leader who can bring together the old-timers and the younger members," Sterrett said. "We need someone who can bridge the gap." The federation, Sterrett said, will be responsible for coordinating the activities of the state's Republican Party.

Sterrett, who has represented Texas's 3rd congressional district for 20 years, was approached by several prominent Republicans who expressed concern about the future of the party. "I was asked to be the first chair of the federation," Sterrett said. "I struggled with my decision, but I felt it was important for me to accept the position." Sterrett said he hopes to be able to work with current leaders to ensure that the party remains strong.

Sterrett said he will be working closely with the national Republican Party to ensure that Texas Republicans have a voice in national politics. He said he plans to host a series of events throughout the state to promote the federation's goals.

"We have a lot of work to do," Sterrett said. "But I'm excited about the possibilities." Sterrett added that he is confident that the federation will be successful in bringing together Republicans from all walks of life.

Potlatch very "hometown"

By Doug Dana

The Potlatch is a unique event that I've always enjoyed attending. This year's event was particularly special for me because it was held in my hometown. I was able to reconnect with old friends and meet new people. The food was delicious and the atmosphere was lively. I hope that Potlatch returns to our area in the future.

Planning committee to meet

Planning for the Potlatch will begin this week. The committee will meet to discuss ideas for this year's event. I encourage everyone to participate in the planning process. The Potlatch is an important event for our community and it's important that we all work together to make it a success.

Lions stop Tribe to stay unbeaten

The Lions, who had not played football in 15 years, went on the road to face the Tribe in a contest between two teams with different expectations. The Lions were considered underdogs, but they were determined to prove their worth.

The game started with a bang as the Lions scored a touchdown on their first play from scrimmage. The Tribe responded with a field goal, but the Lions added another touchdown and a two-point conversion to take a 14-3 lead.

In the second quarter, the Tribe scored a touchdown, but the Lions answered with a field goal to maintain their lead. The teams exchanged punts in the third quarter, but the Lions scored a touchdown in the fourth, which was followed by a two-point conversion. The Tribe tried to mount a comeback, but the Lions' defense held strong.

The final score was 21-14 in favor of the Lions. The win was a huge boost for the Lions, who had not won a game in 15 years. It was also a disappointment for the Tribe, who had been expected to win.

The Lions' coach was overjoyed with the victory. "This is a huge win for our team," he said. "We have not won a game in 15 years, so this is a huge accomplishment. We are looking forward to continuing our winning streak in the upcoming games."

GOOD TASTE

Mary Lee took first in bread, also unique category
Frank Hancock won first in main dish/vegetable class

‘This is very good stuff,’ judge tells entrants
Judging cook-off tough job

By Dorothy Harrell
Staff Writer

Mary Lee took first in bread, also unique category. Frank Hancock won first in main dish/vegetable class.

‘I just want to say this is very good stuff,’ one of the judges, Mrs. T. A. Smith, said after tasting the entries. "The flavors are very, very nice.

The cook-off, held in the Coliseum, was sponsored by the Junior Auxiliary of the Dearborn-Pontiac-Ann Arbor Area. It was open to all women, men, and youth who have a recipe to share with the community.

Entries were divided into several categories: main dish, vegetables, desserts, breads, and cakes. Each entry was judged on taste, appearance, and presentation. The winners were announced by Mrs. Smith, who said she was impressed by the variety and quality of the entries.

She tasted all the entries and said she was surprised at how good they were. "I wish I could have tried them all," she said. "It was a tough job.

The winners were:

Main Dish: Mary Lee, first place; Cindy Hancock, second; Sue Smith, third.

Vegetables: Jennifer Lee, first place; Jane Hancock, second; Susan Smith, third.

Desserts: Mary Lee, first place; Cindy Hancock, second; Sue Smith, third.

Breads: Mary Lee, first place; Cindy Hancock, second; Sue Smith, third.

Cakes: Mary Lee, first place; Cindy Hancock, second; Sue Smith, third.

The judging was tough, but it was also fun. The judges had a great time tasting all the entries and discussing the flavors and ingredients.

If you want to try some of the winning recipes, the judges said they would be happy to share them with you. Just ask them for their recipe cards.

SUMMER MARRIAGE

Age 18-25

Marriage is a big decision, and it's important to make sure you're ready for it. If you're thinking about getting married, now is the time to start preparing.

The first step is to talk to your partner about your relationship. Are you both committed to each other? Are you ready to take on the responsibilities of marriage? These are important questions to consider.

Once you've decided that you're both ready to get married, the next step is to start preparing financially. Make a budget and figure out how you'll pay for the wedding and the honeymoon.

Finally, you'll need to start planning for the wedding itself. Discuss your ideas with your partner and come up with a plan that works for both of you.

Remember, marriage is a serious commitment, and it's important to take the time to prepare for it. Take your time and make sure you're ready before you make the decision to get married.
