Whither the blue mansion on St. Mary?

This Cannongate home of the 19th century was once the site of many social gatherings. Now, after years of neglect and vandalism, it stands as a reminder of the past. The house has been notified that it must be vacated. People have been coming and going for the last few days, and it is expected that the house will be torn down soon.

Three original chandeliers remain, and all incorporate both edelweiss and glass. The owner, who has decided to sell the house, is offering them to the highest bidder.
