Hospital headed in right direction

Where the consultant doubtlessly to know the wars of Texas General Hospitals recommended Thursday that the facility be operated by the city or county. In one point, there is a great amount of excitement here in the board room of the hospital. The city or county will have to decide what is the best plan for the future of the hospital. No one is in agreement that people in the community want the local hospital to remain in the city or county.

The consultant gave that you would come back with this report, unless Dr. G. L. Smith.

So many others were aware of the success of such a facility, and which in fact is the lead of Panola General Hospital. Panola Newsroom thanks the present board of directors. Guest Director Charles C. Drell, the former director of the hospital, spoke of the plans for the future of the hospital. He said that the plans for the future of the hospital included $20,000 for a consultant to宜宾宜宾县 Jaxxie Mee Framer, who came to give a seminar to check the plans for the future of the hospital.

But the board of directors does not have the same interest in the future of the hospital. They have the determination to make the changes that are needed to improve the quality of the hospital. They have the determination to make the changes that are needed to improve the quality of the hospital.

Ascs to assist victims of tornado

A total of $30,000 was given to the Panola County Agriculture Society by the Agricultural Credit Corporation, the county's largest agricultural lender. The money will be used to help victims of the tornado that hit the county on Friday, leaving five people dead and injuring seven others.

The Agriculture Credit Corporation, the nation's largest agricultural lender, has a long history of helping farmers and ranchers in times of need. The company has loaned more than $40 billion to farmers and ranchers since its inception in 1933.

The company's decision to provide financial assistance to the victims of the tornado is an example of the company's commitment to supporting the communities it serves.

Christmas Hotline

By MARY BOSTRED

Families are preparing for the holiday season, and there are a number of events and activities that can help create a festive atmosphere. One of the most popular is the annual Christmas parade, which will take place on Main Street on December 1st. This year's theme is "Merry Christmas," and there will be floats, music, and dancers. The parade starts at 3:00 PM, so plan to be there early to catch all the fun. Other popular events include the Christmas tree lighting ceremony, which will be held at the town square on December 3rd at 7:00 PM. There will be live music and a special appearance by Santa Claus. Don't miss this special occasion and get into the holiday spirit! We've Added Something To Our Mortgage Lending. A CHOICE.

WALKER

Ontario native, Walker began working in politics in the 1980s and has been a fixture on the political scene ever since. With his commanding presence and down-to-earth manner, he has become a popular figure in Republican circles. Walker is known for his strong conservative values and his commitment to limited government. He has been a vocal advocate for tax cuts and has opposed many of the policies of President Obama. Walker is a popular choice among Republicans and is expected to be a strong contender in the 2016 presidential race.

INQUIRING PHOTOGRAPHER

Do you think Gary Hart should have re-entered the Presidential race?

Tom R. Williams

Off and on, Gary Hart has been a fixture on the political scene for many years. He is known for his strong opinions and his willingness to speak his mind. Williams suggests that Hart should have re-entered the Presidential race, as he believes Hart has the experience and the skills to be a strong candidate. However, he also notes that Hart has been criticized for his past remarks and his past behavior. Williams suggests that Hart should carefully consider his options before making a decision.

Harris Chapel News

It's a beautiful sight, many times, when the Harris Chapel Sunday evening service begins. The church is filled to capacity and the music is uplifting. The program is always well planned and the message is always powerful. It is a time when we all come together as a community to worship and praise our Lord. The Harris Chapel is a wonderful place to be on Sunday evening.
