PGH hires full time administrator

By John Coleman

With an eye on plans for future growth and expanded medical services, the Panola General Hospital of Clarksdale has hired a full-time administrator. Billy York, presently a counselor at Panola Community Hospital in Potts Camp, will take up his new position on Monday, March 21.

York was the third of three applicants who interviewed with the hospital. The interview process was conducted by the chairman of the administrator search committee, Tom Sumner, last November.

According to Dennis Cockrum, Panola General Hospital director, the hospital quickly decided it would like to have a full-time administrator, and that job was offered to York.

Special toddler area planned for egg hunt

A special area for toddlers will be set up at this year's annual Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, March 26. The area has been added in response to requests by local parents. The area will be open to all children, and is designed especially for children ages 3 and under who may have difficulty keeping up with the older age groups.

Superintendent Randal Porter will become Carthage Junior High principal effective July 1. Porter was chosen by parents of CJHS board members during their regular meeting March 17.

Carthage School Board President Melton McGee said McGee was a school bus driver and one of the first people to react to the action on the issue. McGee was the only administrator who had a principal at his school, he said.

"I am very excited about the news," Porter said. "My goal in the next 12 months will be to build the bond that can be built."}

We Salute The
Camp Fire Girls Of Panola County

Camp Fire Bluebirds
There are 95 members in the Panola County Camp Fire group. They are the offspring of those who lost their lives in Forrest City's worst fire. The children plan to continue the tradition of volunteerism and good works. They will help in the community through Rexall Stores, Interior, Low's Furniture, Dundon Jewelers, Blackman's, Johnson Jewelers, Anderson Jewelers, and other Panola County businesses and organizations. They have a new leader, Woodrow Burns, and they also have a new Camp Fire Bluebird, Jordan Hill. They plan to continue the tradition of volunteerism and good works.

Decorative finds new life in old things

By Dorothy Watts
Sunday, March 20, 1988

Decorators, who are often referred to as "art thieves," tend to love personality and his home is a case in point. It is filled with objects that have been collected over the years, and the result is a pleasing and personal environment. The home is decorated with a mixture of antiques and more modern pieces, creating a balance between old and new. The color scheme is soft and muted, with shades of blue and green predominating. The decor is both elegant and inviting, making it a welcoming space for all who enter. "At night," says Mrs. Johnson, "I love to sit in my living room and gaze at the beautiful antiques and art that surround me. It's like living in a museum!"

Feast of the Annunciation falls on Friday

Lightening the solemnity of Luke 1:26-38, Jesus' parents attend the barley harvest and prepare for the Passover holiday. March 29 marks the 9th week of Lent, which for Christians means the Easter season begins. The 40 days of Lent are a special opportunity for some people until Easter. The first Sunday of Lent, March 4, is known as Ash Wednesday.

HELP

Tell Everyone The Run-off Election is April 12, 1988

I want to thank all the opening candidates, Mr. Bar- nson and Mr. Charles "Stoney" Odom for offering their support to me in this run-off. I want to express my gratitude to them for their active support.

I am committed to the voters of this county that I will work on a year-round basis to fulfill their needs and expectations if I am elected. I will work to maintain the goals of the county and the responsibility to which I have dedicated myself.

I wish that all voters vote for the person who will make the best decision for the people. This is an important election and we are in serious trouble.

There is a proper time to work at this is a proper time to stand up for our family. This is a time to make a change.

If You Want A Change Vote For Dick Haynes.
