For May 7 school, city voting

Filing period ends for local candidates

By Sharon Burd

As the filing period closed Wednesday for the May 7 area school district and city elections, candidates entered their names to be placed on the ballot.

Carthage Independent School District has three positions open on the school board, with only one being unchallenged. Incumbent Bobbi Willis is running for the position.

Incumbents all unopposed

All of the incumbents in the Carthage and Beddows municipal elections will be faced unopposed on the ballot. May 7, Wednesday, March 23, was the final day of filing for candidates running for positions that will be elected in both.

In the Carthage race, Canton Jones has filed for re-election as mayor. Harold Bass has filed for re-election to place 3 on the city council and Lynn Vincent for re-election for place 4. In the Beddows elections, Thomas R. Adams filed for re-election as mayor and Jack Harris and Rob Peavy both filed for the open position.

At the Carthage town hall, tickets will be held in each election. April 18 through May 3 at the appropriate city hall.

Mailing costs to increase

By Sharon Burd

Higher postage rates in the U.S. will go into effect on April 1. This includes, among other things, a new cost to mail a letter or bill the class cents, a three-cent increase.

Carthage post office's Officer-in-Charge, Tony Bridges, revealed, "The rate increase is going to affect everyone.

"We know there were going to be a rate increase," Bridges said.

"We didn't know how much it was going to be.

"People are going to have to get used to it," Bridges said.

The local post office has been issued "E" stamps, which become available to the public at 8 a.m. The stamps were put into service by the Post Office.

"We received the "E" stamps yesterday and we will be selling them beginning today," Bridges said.

"People are going to have to get used to it," Bridges said. "We're going to be selling them for 25 cents a sheet."
Super Tuesday in Texas will have future impact

Tucker's note: Super Tuesday, a primary election day in which 14 states hold primaries or caucuses, is important in determining the future impact of the election. The states hold their primaries and caucuses, which helps to determine which candidates will move forward in the primaries. The results of Super Tuesday can predict the outcome of the primary elections, which in turn can determine the ultimate winner of the presidential nomination.

By Secretary National Ministerial Alliance

It's not quite religion by convention. However, it's designed to give the ministers of the Panola County Ministerial Alliance an opportunity to participate in an interfaith Holy Week Service and to help make it work in a meaningful way.

The service will be held on Wednesday, March 21, at 7 p.m. in the Liberty City Community Center. The service will be conducted by Father John O'Brien, pastor of St. James Catholic Church, and there will be special music by the Liberty City Community Chorus, directed by Dr. John Kirchner. The little girl walking into the restroom is all of three years old. She is usually shy, but today she is shy of the other girls. She has a mane of hair that is as long as her body. Her feet are clad in ballet shoes. She is carrying a small purse.

"Why is she wearing ballet shoes?" asks one of the other girls.

"She's preparing to go to the ballet class," replies another.

But the little girl is more interested in the other girls than in ballet class. She stops to look at them and then walks by.
