Improvements turn lake into a top tourist draw

By Sandy Young

Seeing that Lake Navarre is the largest tourist draw in Panola County, Rud Sharp, chairman of the Panola County Fresh Water District No. 1 said he had headed for the continued improvements to the lake. Over the past two years, many improvements have been made at the lake including the cleaning up of some of the areas around the lake, improvements to the swimming area and major breakdowns put on the lake.

Residents and frequent visitors to the lake have said that the improvements have made the lake a lot more useable.

Improvements to the lake began approximately two years ago according to Sharp. With the help of a large grant Sharp said a water board was formed by Dr. Edwin Young, James Rice, B.W. Weaver, J.O. Davis and himself to make the improvements.

Resident said some of the improvements made were roads, conditions in the camping area and parking area and the lake in general were very very poor. There were only four trash barrels between the three paws and the restrooms were not usable. Improvements to the restrooms were made as well as the restrooms.

The lake manager has also added the boating lanes on the lake and boats to make the water more usable.

CISD to attempt to get back taxes

By Sheryluffy Corley

Almost $1 million in delinquent taxes owed to the College Independent School District remain on the books for years 1996 and 1997. A committee investigating ways to collect those delinquent taxes.

According to the CISD tax collection policy, at the end of 1996, all delinquent taxes owed to the school district is approximately $935,000. Board members decided Tuesday during their monthly meeting to investigate and perhaps find a better solution to the collection task.

"I believe we need to find ways to make the tax a little more reasonable and we may need to have a better system of collecting those delinquent taxes," said board member Don Griffin. "We are talking about billions that we need to run our school system and it is possible." Griffin said board members that the district should have the delinquent taxes the school district has come from 1996. But those delinquents before that should be dealt with family.

"I can sympathize with the cause in 1997 and give them an extension of time, but the delinquent taxpayers from 1996 on back have had sufficient time," he said.

Griffin also suggested a way to make it more reasonable and have the district take the better one in the collection.

"I believe the district, at a point in time, that the tax was raised and the taxes were brought in those delinquent taxes."

Three jailed on drug charges

Department of Public Safety said Friday that three men were arrested on charges of possession of marijuana and heroin. The men were taken into custody after a search of their home. The men have been charged with third-degree felony possession of marijuana and heroin.

Employees honor Cockrum

Cancer Cocktail, former interim administrator of Panola General Hospital, was honored by the hospital staff on Friday. Cockrum was named interim administrator in December of last year until the first of March, when St. John was named permanently. In that position, Cockrum oversaw the hospital's operations and managed its finances. Under his leadership, the hospital saw a significant increase in patient satisfaction and improved financial performance.

Postage hike increases volume of junk mail

There was an article in the middle of the paper that mentioned the increase in junk mail because of the postage hike. It seemed like an inside joke of some sort.

There are a few things that we can do to reduce the amount of junk mail we receive. One is to opt out of receiving catalogs and other mailings by visiting the Direct Marketing Association's website. Another is to sign up for the government's National Do Not Call Registry. We can also request to stop receiving unsolicited phone calls by calling 1-888-382-1222.

There are also some things that companies can do to reduce their waste. For example, they can use recycled paper and reduce the amount of ink and toner they use. They can also use electronic communication instead of paper whenever possible.

There are also some things that individuals can do to reduce their waste. For example, we can recycle as much as possible and avoid using products that are not biodegradable. We can also purchase products that are made from environmentally friendly materials.

The article in the middle of the paper mentioned that there were a few things that we could do to reduce the amount of waste we produce. One of these was to reduce the amount of food waste we produce. Another was to reduce the amount of water waste we produce.

The article also mentioned that there were a few things that companies could do to reduce their waste. One of these was to use recycled materials in their products. Another was to use renewable energy sources.

In general, it seems like there are a lot of things that we can do to reduce our waste. Some of these things are easy, like recycling, while others are more difficult, like changing the way we use energy.

We should all try to do our part in reducing waste. It is not only good for the environment, but it is also good for our health.

Introducing the New Improved
Soft-Whipped Kountry Fresh Bread.
(And 4 very good reasons why it's better)

1. Soft-Whipped: New Kountry Fresh bread with whipped cream erases the crust to make the thinnest crust you've ever seen! No wonder it's the national best seller.
2. Crispy Fresh: New andews-baked, and whipped cream gives the bread a crisp fresh crunch that no other bread can ever match.
3. Never Refrigerated: Refrigerated or takes long? Don't think so. Kountry Fresh only needs a simple whip and a whip on it's own. It's the only bread you can whip in one minute.
4. Hands for a Dollar: And that means you won't get a 'guy' that's all the time.

CISD accepts bids for three new buses

By Harriett Carter

The CISD board of education has approved the purchase of three new buses for the coming school year. The CISD bond referendum passed in November 2021 provided the funds for these purchases. The new buses will be used at the Debate and Speech Department's districts, the senior high school, and the junior high school. The buses are expected to arrive in March, and the district is currently accepting bids from manufacturers worldwide. The new buses will comply with the latest safety standards and be equipped with state-of-the-art technology. The district plans to use the new buses to transport students to various events, such as games and competitions. The new buses will be part of the district's fleet of 25 buses, which serve the entire student population.

Rainbow Blue Birds met; discuss next field trip

The Rainbow Bluebirds met on Tuesday, April 5, at the home of Mrs. Dan Austin to discuss their next field trip. After enjoying refreshments and a short business meeting, the group discussed the schedule for their upcoming trip to the Houston Zoo. The trip is scheduled for May 10, and all members were encouraged to participate. The meeting ended with a roll call and a prayer.

Goal-setting workshop gets input from PJC personnel, community

PJC takes look at self, warts and all

By Dorothy Merita

Dorothy Merita

PJC's goal-setting workshop is taking place this month. The goal-setting workshops are an integral part of the PJC's career development program. The workshops are designed to help individuals set realistic career goals and to provide feedback on their progress. The workshops are also a way for PJC to identify areas for improvement and to adjust its programs to meet the needs of its students. The workshops are open to all PJC employees and students.

Lots of goals, but no Brubeck. There are many goals being set at the PJC, but no Brubeck. Brubeck is a famous jazz musician, and he is not setting any goals at the PJC. The goal-setting workshops are about setting goals for one's career, not about setting goals for music. The workshops are designed to help individuals set realistic career goals and to provide feedback on their progress. The workshops are also a way for PJC to identify areas for improvement and to adjust its programs to meet the needs of its students. The workshops are open to all PJC employees and students.

Bazer will spend summer as Baptist missionary to underprivileged

Drama student to play biggest role yet

By Dorothy Neslo

Gary Bazer

During his last year as a Baptist missionary, Bazer will be working in a mission located in a remote area. Bazer has been serving in this capacity for several years and has gained valuable experience in his role. Due to his experience, Bazer is well-suited to take on this responsibility and is confident in his ability to make a positive impact in the community.

As a student, Bazer has been involved in various drama productions, and he has a particular interest in acting. His experience in drama has prepared him for his role as a missionary, as he is able to connect with the people he is serving in a more meaningful way. Bazer believes that his experience in drama will be beneficial in his mission work, as he will be able to convey the message of the church in a more engaging way.

The mission work is focused on providing aid to the underprivileged community, and Bazer is excited to be a part of this mission. He is looking forward to the opportunity to make a difference in the lives of those he is serving.

We deliver a lot more than just NEWSPAPERS

Some publications only think about circulation simply as "numbers." To us, circulation means people! For these very important people, we deliver the local news and keep them informed about all the things that affect their lives and their future.

We provide them with meaningful features. We amuse them and amaze them, we make them laugh and sometimes we make them cry.

We make them think and act. We tell them where the best buys can be found through the ads and we help them sell all kinds of goods and services. We deliver a lot more than just newspapers.
