Public hearings set
Hospital airs its concerns

By John Coleman
Fort Worth Star-Telegram

Rural hospitals will continue to suffer financial woes if not examined. Farmers must get involved in trying to save them, according to Sen. Richard Anderson, who said that doctors and health care providers should be treated with the same respect as if they were in charge of a hospital. Anderson visits PCH

Post Staff Report

The highway leading to the Panola County hospital is littered with debris and leaves, and there is a need to clean it up. The hospital is actively working on the problem.

Infant clothing still needed for needy expectant mothers

"Getting a good start is important for the health and development of a child," said Mrs. Wally Mulligan, director of the hospital's women's and children's department. The hospital is seeking donations of clothing for newborns and infants.

Varia Channosse, a PCH employee, said that there is a need for clothes in sizes 0-3 months.

Community help

Carthage sophomore dies in wreck

Maurie Channosse, 22, of Carthage, was killed in a traffic accident on April 28, 1988, near Carthage. Mr. Channosse was a senior at Carthage High School and was an active member of the senior class. He was killed while driving his car on US 287.

Maurie Channosse was born on September 23, 1967, in Carthage, Texas. She was educated in the Carthage Independent School District and was a member of the senior class. She was an active member of the Carthage High School cheerleading squad and was involved in several extracurricular activities.

A GoFundMe page set up by her family and friends has raised over $10,000 to cover funeral expenses. The family is planning a memorial service for her at the school on Saturday, May 1, at 10 a.m.

SPORTS SUNDAY

 Throws second half race into turmoil

Chapel Hill upsets Carthage, 4-3

Sunday, May 1, 1988

By RAY LEACH

Adron Wilkerson's three-run home run in the top of the first inning gave the Carthage Hill信息系统 the edge, but Chapel Hill picked up six runs in the second inning on the way to a 10-0 victory.

Wilkerson, who had three hits and three runs batted in, smacked his shot over the left-center field fence. He had a double earlier in the game and was responsible for the game's first run.

The Hill信息系统 starters also did well, giving up no runs and four hits in five innings. They struck out nine batters and walked one.

Chapel Hill's big inning came against Carthage relief pitcher Rick Feingersh, who relieved starter Steve Lee in the second inning. Feingersh gave up six hits and three runs in the inning.

Chapel Hill's first run was scored on a wild pitch in the second inning. W. L. Deakins scored on the play.

The Hill信息系统 had three other runs in the inning, scoring on a single and three hits.

Carthage scored its only run of the game in the third inning on a double by John Wilson. Wilson scored on a sacrifice fly by Joe Adams.

Chapel Hill had a hit in each of the first six innings, while Carthage had a hit in the second and fourth.

Chapel Hill had a total of 23 hits, while Carthage had 13.

Friday's game was the third of a five-game series between the two teams.

All-Sports file Monday

Athletic Director Steve Don Blankenship will host a banquet Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the community room of the high school. Gifts will be presented to the top athletes in each sport.

At 11 o'clock this Sunday, I'm trying to catch up on my wash. At usual this has been another busy week. One thing for sure, there doesn't seem to be any time to do that! Of course, things are as they are for the next few weeks.

If you're trying to get through a workday, or even tonight, so I can make a quick trip to see if I can catch a quilt in my room, then when I get home, I be looking for you. I will see your quilt in my room. For the Good Times Quilters will meet each Thursday and quilt their quilts.

So you, Mrs. Wilma Allen is having a great time. She must be able to quilt now, so you'll quit her. I can be with you on an ac-
