Place 4 runoff set for Saturday

By John Coleman

Watchman News Editor

The 8:30 a.m. runoff election for place 4 on the CISD Board of Trustees will be held Saturday at the Travis Elementary School. It was called following the May 21 election when no candidate received a majority of the votes for the 4th Place Seat on the Board of Trustees.

In the May 21 runoff, the candidates were Barry Bagley and C. David Fleming. Bagley had received 424 votes and Fleming had 407 votes.

In order to have a runoff election, a candidate must receive less than 50 percent of the votes cast in the original runoff election and the candidate receiving the second highest number of votes in the original election must appear on the runoff ballot.

In this case, Bagley and Fleming both failed to receive a majority of the votes cast in the May 21 runoff, but Bagley received the second highest number of votes. Therefore, a runoff election was held.

Bagley said following the May 21 runoff, “The election is over, but we’re not done. We’ll be back in September and we’ll be ready to go.”

In the runoff election, Bagley received 481 votes and Fleming received 455 votes. The runoff election will be held on July 27 at Travis Elementary School.

The runoff election is the last election held in the county for school board positions. The next election will be held in November for the 2018-2019 school year.

Please vote Saturday

Property reappraisals completed this year

Estimated tax reappraisals reveal decline in valuation

By Charley Garver

Staff Writer

The Panola Watchman

The property reappraisals completed this year in Panola County revealed a decline in valuation for most properties. The reappraisals, which are conducted every year, are used to determine the value of property for tax purposes.

The reappraisals are conducted by the Panola County Appraisal District, which is responsible for assessing the value of all real property in the county. The district reappraised all property in the county this year, and the results of the reappraisals were released last month.

According to the reappraisals, the value of most properties in Panola County decreased this year. The decrease in valuation is due to a variety of factors, including changes in the local economy and a decline in the number of sales of properties.

Rural hospitals would get more money

PGH would be helped by bill

The Panola Watchman

By John Coleman

Watchman News Editor

The Legislature’s decision to provide more funding for rural hospitals would be a big win for Panola County. The decision was made as part of a larger package of legislation that was passed by the Legislature this year.

Ahoskie writer Gail Conley has made a name for herself with her writing on the subject of rural hospitals. In her book, “Rural Hospitals: A Personal Journey,” she shares her experiences with rural hospitals and the challenges they face.

The book is available in bookstores and online. If you’re interested in learning more about rural hospitals and the challenges they face, be sure to check out Gail Conley’s book.

NEWSBRIEFS

Sen. Anderson in hospital

State Senator Robert Anderson, D-Athens, is expected to be in good condition following his surgery today in a Dallas hospital. According to family spokesman, Anderson’s condition is stable and he is expected to make a full recovery.

The senator was taken to the hospital this morning following a fall at his home earlier in the day. According to his family, Anderson was taken to the hospital for observation.

The surgery was performed by Dr. John Doob, who is expected to remain at the hospital for a few days. Anderson will be released from the hospital later in the week.

Bio-tech lab sought for Texas

Washington Watch By Sen. Lloyd Bentsen

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Senator Lloyd Bentsen asked a Senate panel to support legislation that would establish a new research facility in Texas. The facility would be a joint venture between the University of Texas and the University of Houston. The bill was introduced to help fund the construction of a new medical center.

People go in a lot of pain and expense to make sure their loved ones' graves look nice. I don't understand why people would want to take the flowers after the services. It's disrespectful to the family and disrespectful to the deceased.

Students get insight on importance of reading

By Marjory Fortune

Classroom pupils and grade school teachers got a rare treat Thursday when Carmen D. Hensley, principal of the Carthage Junior High School, and vùng Hurst, principal of the Carthage High School, gave a presentation on the importance of reading to children.

Hensley and Hurst told the teachers that reading is one of the most important skills a child can develop. They said that children who read well tend to do better in school and have higher self-esteem.

Hensley also talked about the benefits of reading to children, such as improved vocabulary and better comprehension. She said that reading is a great way to help children learn about new ideas and different cultures.

Hurst emphasized the importance of parents reading to their children and encouraged teachers to incorporate reading into their lesson plans.

The presentation was well-received by the teachers, who said they would incorporate the information into their teaching.

Cool temps cause aphid increase

By Mark Brown

Cool temperatures and damp weather are causing an increase in aphid populations in the area. Aphids can be a major pest for gardeners and can damage crops and plants.

According to local expert John Brown, aphids are attracted to cooler temperatures and are more active in damp weather. He said that aphids can quickly multiply and cause significant damage to plants.

Brown recommended using insecticidal soap or neem oil to control aphids. He also suggested using natural predators, such as ladybugs and lacewings, to help control aphid populations.

The increase in aphids is expected to continue throughout the season, so gardeners are urged to take steps to control the population and protect their plants.

Elect Barry Bagley

Barry Bagley, School Board Trustee

Election Day, May 21, 1988

The Carthage School Board is one of the best in the state. I will continue to work hard to maintain that reputation.

I have held the position of School Board Trustee for the past six years. During that time, I have worked hard to make sure that the students of Carthage have the best possible educational experience.

I have been involved in numerous educational programs and initiatives during my tenure on the board. I have worked to ensure that all students are provided with the resources they need to succeed.

I believe that education is the key to a bright future and I will continue to work hard to ensure that every student in Carthage has access to the best possible education.

I am running for re-election to continue serving the students of Carthage. I urge you to vote for me on Election Day, May 21, 1988.

A local referee is expected to hear the case of a D.C. man charged with two counts of fraud, two counts of theft and one count of embezzlement.

The man, identified by one local police official as 'Bob Smith', was arrested in the early morning hours of Friday, December 27, and charged with four counts of fraud, three counts of theft and one count of embezzlement.

According to local police, the fraud charges involve the theft of a large sum of money from a local business.

Local police have been investigating the case for several months, and have been working closely with the state attorney's office to build a strong case.

County receives $1.047

The county has received a $1.047 payment on a debt owed by the county.

The debt was owed by a local business, and the county had been working for several months to collect the payment.

The county was able to negotiate a settlement with the business, and the payment was made on May 22.

Galloway News

OF COURSE CHICAGO
BY MRS. CLOIS BAKER

Hello everybody! I will see you in a few days.

April 30th was a day for the Galloway News. It was a great day for everyone. The students, the teachers, and the families all gathered to enjoy the festivities. Everyone was dressed in their finest, and the atmosphere was electric.

The day began with a breakfast hosted by the Galloway News staff. The students served their families breakfast and shared stories about their experiences at Galloway.

At 9:00 AM, the Galloway News staff held a special ceremony to honor the graduating seniors. The students were recognized for their hard work and dedication. They were presented with certificates and gifts, and the staff presented them with a special plaque.

After the ceremony, the students were free to explore the Galloway News campus. They visited the classrooms, the library, and the art gallery. They also had the opportunity to see the new playground, which was dedicated to the memory of late student, John Smith.

The day ended with a picnic on the school’s lawn. The students, the teachers, and the families all joined together to enjoy the beautiful weather and share a meal.

Overall, it was a great day for everyone. The Galloway News staff is looking forward to seeing everyone again next year. We are already planning for next year’s exciting events and look forward to seeing everyone again next year.

YOU OWNE IT TO YOURSELF TO COMPARE

Before you invest your hard-earned $60, do you owe it to yourself to compare investments? Should you be in tax-deferred, IRA, 401(k), stock, mutual fund, insurance products, or real estate? Ask yourself, "What does it do for an income stream?""

The only great investment is the one which you understand and feel safe investing in. We will help you find an investment that fits your situation best, and not just for safety reasons. We offer the same wide range of services to the well known broker and include our due diligence and personal service, which has been the hallmark of our business for over 25 years.

Arthur, Ewings receive Kilgore College degrees

The students from Carthage were among 398 students who received degrees from Kilgore College on May 22, 1988. The ceremony was held in the college’s gymnasium, which was packed with family members and friends of the graduates.

Arthur Ewings received his degree in business administration, while Ewings graduated with a degree in engineering.

Homemade frozen desserts invitation to ingenuity

Ice cream freezers crank out memories

By Dorothy Martin

Many of the dessert ideas you’ve heard about or have seen in magazines are now being made easily in your home. With necessity being the mother of invention, homemakers have come up with many creative ideas to make their own frozen desserts. There are recipes available for many different types of frozen desserts such as whip cream, sherbet, ice cream, and frozen custard. The options are endless and can be mixed and matched to suit your taste.

The basic principle of making frozen desserts in a freezer is to start with a mixture that is rich in fat and sugar, which gives the mixture a smooth, creamy texture. The mixture is then frozen, usually in a machine, until it reaches the desired consistency. The final product is then served cold, making it a perfect treat for hot summer days.

Here are tips to make ice cream even better

Here are a few simple suggestions from the Renaissance Age and old.

1. Before freezing, stir the mixture to make sure it is smooth and free of lumps.
2. Freeze in smaller quantities to prevent ice crystals from forming.
3. Remove the outer container from the ice cream maker and let it warm up to room temperature before using.
4. Freeze for a longer period of time to ensure a smooth consistency.

U.S. "Choice" VS. U.S. "Good" (What they don't tell you)

Some supermarkets are satisfied with only selling government grade "GOOD" beef and not U.S. Choice. Not WINN-DIXIE! You see, what makes Choice better is that it's grain-fed over a longer period of time. This feeding causes "marbling" of the beef, which makes it juicer, more tender and gives it better flavor.

So next time you see "good" beef, you're seeing beef WINN-DIXIE wouldn't accept. Which also makes you wonder: what else they don't tell you about the rest of their store.

There's Nothing Like The Taste You Dream About.

Winn Dixie starts with only the finest U.S. Choice Beef. Then we trim every cut of excess fat to a leaner quarter-inch before it's weighed and sold. That guarantee assures you more great tasting beef for your money. W-D Brand Beef! Why settle for anything less?

Kids love it and grown-ups do, too!

Kids of all ages love the great taste of our hickory smoked barbecue beef. It's great on sandwiches or even by itself. And this week it's on sale at a price that will tempt your pocketbook, as well as your taste buds.

Cheese Shoppe

- Chopped BBQ Beef $3.99 Lb.
- Cherry Pies $1.99 Ea.

Get Your 2nd Set of Prints FREE!

When you bring your film to WINN-DIXIE this week, you not only get high quality Kodak prints, you get your second set of prints absolutely FREE.

Offer good on 110, 126, 35 and Disc color film.
If you're the victim of poor produce.

Here's Good News

WINN-DIXIE is working around the clock to bring you the finest fresh fruits and vegetables! Whether it's tender sweet corn from home or kiwifruit from New Zealand, you can rest assured WINN-DIXIE has the best.
