‘Diversify,’ expert warns East Texas

By Phil Martin
Panola Post Editor

MIDLAND — There’s not much the region can do about the oil crash for the last 20 years has varied from good to bad, yet most of us are safe and diversified and grew over the last 20 years.

The message was that an economic development study of the region suggested that?

“All we’ve really done is create an opportunity for everyone to work real hard and make something happen.”

So, after all of that, it’s a beginning...."

— Ray Perryman

The report, released here Wednesday, the report, prepared by the Baylor University Forecasting Service, covers the 14 counties of the East Texas Council of Governments.

The report urged the establishment of a regional council to focus on the diversification of the region. The council would provide a forum for the discussion of issues affecting the region and would also serve as a mechanism for coordinating economic development efforts.

The report also recommended the creation of a regional economic database to track economic indicators and provide a basis for decision-making.

The report concludes that diversification is crucial to the long-term economic health of the region.

Carthage Independent News

The Carthage Independent News, a weekly newspaper serving Carthage, Texas, has published an article about the diversification of the region. The article highlights the importance of diversification and suggests that it is crucial to the long-term economic health of the region.

The article also mentions the release of a new report by the Baylor University Forecasting Service, which suggests that diversification is crucial to the region's economic success.

The article concludes by stating that diversification is a priority for the region and that efforts are underway to implement the recommendations of the report.

CISD whittles three cents off tax rate for school year

By Sandy Young
Staff Writer

CISD Superintendent Max Wheatle announced Monday that the tax rate for the Carthage Independent School District (CISD) for the 1988-89 school year will be reduced by three cents.

This is the first time in recent years that the tax rate has been reduced, and it is due to the increased property values in the district.

The tax rate for the 1987-88 school year was 41.5 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. For the 1988-89 school year, the tax rate will be 38.5 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

The reduction in the tax rate will result in a decrease of approximately $200,000 in the district's budget for the 1988-89 school year.

The tax reduction is a reflection of the growth and development happening in the Carthage area. The district is excited to see the positive impact this growth is having on the community.

Walt Disney made me cry

Dear Editor:

I remember the day clearly. It was a bright sunny day, and I was walking down the streets of Los Angeles. Suddenly, I saw a man walking down the street, and he looked familiar. As I got closer, I realized it was Walt Disney.

I was speechless. I could not believe it was really him. I approached him and said, "Mr. Disney, I'm so happy to see you!" He smiled and said, "Hello, nice to see you too. What brings you here?"

I explained to him that I was a big fan of his work, and I was curious to know what he was doing. He told me that he was working on a new project, a movie, and he was very excited about it. He said, "I'm working on a new movie that I think will be a huge success. I hope you'll like it."

I smiled and said, "I have no doubt that it will be. But, Mr. Disney, why are you making movies?" He replied, "I love making movies. It's my passion. I want to bring magic and happiness to people's lives."

I was touched by his words. I could see how much he loved what he was doing. I asked him if I could see the movie. He said, "I'd love to show it to you, but it's not ready yet."

I asked him if I could watch the movie when it was released. He said, "Of course, I'll make sure you get a copy."

I thanked him and walked away, feeling inspired by his words. I knew that I had just witnessed something special.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

On August 8, Violet Dean, Olive Adams and I left that morning for Livingston and Harris. My brother-in-law, Gayle, was waiting for us at the airport. We spent the day exploring the town and visiting with friends.

On August 9, Andy and Olive went to visit their daughter, Sarah, in San Antonio. They left the next morning to drive to Houston. In a few minutes I was on my way to the Harris Chapel Festival in San Antonio.

They introduced the festival, Safari of India, which they said was very interesting. They were from Sunnyvale, a town near San Francisco.

Friday morning at 11 a.m., I met them at the airport. We spent the day exploring the city and enjoying the festival.

I met my friend, Pat Town, on her way back to the airport on Saturday afternoon. We spent the day exploring the city and enjoying the festival.
