To be sworn Nov. 1

Ellett named sheriff

Panche County Sheriff-elect Jack Ellett has been named to fill the remaining two months of Tommy Hark's term when the sheriff retires at the end of the month.

Monday morning, at their regularly scheduled meeting, the Panche County Commissioners held an ex parte meeting in the Panache County Courthouse prior to the regular meeting to accept the sheriff-elect when he arrives. Mr. Hark is taking up vacation time until Ellett is sworn in on Nov. 1.

According to County Judge Mike Parker, the commish decided to accept letter from Ellett to resign at the end of the October term, which Parker read to the commissioners, the sheriff was not able to resign to save Panche County. The commissioners decided to accept his resignation and that Ellett fill the rest of his term.

Jack Ellett

"We will swear Jack Ellett in at the end of this month's term and he will have the opportunity to re-swear the office in the second month of the term. He will then have the opportunity to re-swear the county and the office.

Ellett has served in the military and is a retired Air Force officer. He is a life-long resident of Panche County and has been active in the community for many years. He has been a member of the Panche County Democratic Party and has served on various local boards and committees.

Only three days to Polarch

Workers were busy yesterday, putting up the tents for the Polarch '80 to be held Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 10-11 at the Municipal Park on Loop 453. The ninth annual festival will feature a variety of events, including booths, food, live and craft exhibits, and live entertainment. This year, the festival will feature a special section for local farmers, allowing them to promote their products.

In addition, the festival will feature a free family concert on Saturday, Oct. 10 at 5 p.m. Attendees will have the opportunity to enjoy live music and a variety of food and drink options at the festival.

Local firemen visit school

Jerryl Coles, a fireman for Active-Community Volunteer Fire Department, presented a short program on fire safety to the students at Laura Pichnok's kindergarten class at Crabtree Primary School. His presentation emphasized the importance of fire safety and prevention, and he provided safety tips to ensure that students are aware of the potential dangers of fires.

Support Potlatch

There is a mysterious conspiracy afoot, one in which all Panola County ought to participate. For the ninth consecutive year I appear our annual event for Potlatch sales is going to come off.

This year, the Potlatch sale will be held on the Panola County Fairgrounds. The sale will feature items such as clothing, jewelry, and other goods.

The sale is a great opportunity for local businesses and individuals to sell their wares and support the community.

Editorials

To the editor:

More on the Duke and gun control

I was struck by the recent Duke case in which the Duke's gun was found in the possession of a child. This is not the first time such an incident has occurred, and it is clear that more needs to be done to address this issue.

We need to have a national conversation about gun control and the role of guns in our society. The Duke case is just one example of the problems that can arise when guns are not properly regulated.

The Curious Reporter

Helping firefighters to help you

Last year, I had the opportunity to help firefighters in our community. I was able to see firsthand how hard they work to protect our community.

I believe that all of us should do what we can to support our firefighters and thank them for their service.

Dialysis center holds open house for celebration

Dr. Mike M. Martin, center, at the open house for the Dialysis Center of the Panola County Medical Center at 312 North Main Street recently. The center is a part of the private, non-profit Dialysis Clinic of the Panola County Medical Center, which is a $1.5 million venture and is the first of its kind in Panola County. The center was opened in 1992 and is expected to serve an average of 20 to 25 patients per day. The center's goal is to provide high-quality, compassionate care to patients with chronic kidney disease. The facility is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and is staffed by a team of registered nurses, dialysis technicians, and social workers. The center offers state-of-the-art equipment and treatment options, including peritoneal dialysis and hemodialysis. Patients are referred to the center by their primary care physicians or nephrologists. The center also provides educational programs and support groups for patients and their families. For more information, call 693-4331.

GOOD TASTE

Soup to stew to chowder to gumbo to chill

To Sandi Todd, soup is many things—all good

By Dorothy Martin

For those who have been treated to sandwiches and soups from Panola County's finest flavor, it's no secret that Sandi Todd is one of the best. Her dishes are not only delicious but also beautifully presented, making them a delight to eye as well as the palate.

Sandi's recipe for this month's article is a classic tomato soup with a twist. The recipe includes fresh tomatoes, onions, and celery, along with a blend of spices that come together to create a rich and satisfying dish.

Because she loves roses so closely, Sandi decided to name the soup "Tomato Rose" and included a few rose petals in the dish to give it an extra touch of beauty. The soup is charged with flavor and texture, making it a perfect choice for
cozy evenings in.

Sandi Todd after huge stock pot in which she makes soups.

"I think from the beginning I always thought it was the easiest and cheapest to store in the store, and it just gets better the longer it stays.

I try to bring my soups with me on the road, and I've been known to serve them at my family gatherings and friends' parties. It's always a hit."

Sandi

As the mention of the article, it's no secret that Sandi Todd is one of the best. Her dishes are not only delicious but also beautifully presented, making them a delight to eye as well as the palate.

Because she loves roses so
closely, Sandi decided to
name the soup "Tomato Rose" and included a few rose petals in the dish to give it an extra touch of beauty. The soup is charged with flavor and
texture, making it a
perfect choice for
cozy evenings in.

Planning a holiday bazaar?
We'd like to know about it!

Holiday bazaar season is almost here! And we'd love to hear about any events happening in your area to share on our platform.
Beginning Saturday, Oct 13, the Panola County Fairgrounds will be hosting a holiday bazaar with more than 20 vendors, including local artisans and businesses.

Recipes not judged for neatness, but ease of reading is important

Recipes submitted for typing must be typed, and if you don't have a typewriter, we'll be glad to help you. Just send us the recipe, and we'll type it for you.

An easy way to get started is to write your typed recipes on index cards and then type them on a blank page.

In Sunday's Panola Watchman, we ran a photograph of a group of high school students from Carthage's Class of 1965, who recently gathered for the 20th reunion. Unfortunately, the photo was not of the reunion party. A city official, who was present at the event, confirmed that the party was not a rehearsal for the reunion, but rather a group of friends celebrating a 40th anniversary. We regret any possible confusion this may have caused.
