And she brought forth her firstborn son and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

—From the Gospel According to St. Luke
'All I want for Christmas is...'

Dear Santa,

I wish for peace in the world, joy for all, health for those who need it, and for all of us to be kind and thoughtful to each other.

Thank you, Ethlon

The gladness and delight of this holiday season must be somewhat tempered by the news that Ethlon Birdwell has resigned from the Carthage City Commission for health reasons.

For more than a decade, Mr. Birdwell has been a prominent man in Panola County — a happy, life-like man usually being found about town in a wide-brimmed Western hat. He is an active figure in the community, often leading in fundraising and other projects. Now, as the struggle to regain his health, he cannot continue to serve.

Mr. Birdwell has a long and notable record of public service to Panola County dating back to 1940, when he served as a Carthage executive of theWoman's Club. In the 1950s, he served on the Carthage Chamber of Commerce, and in the 1960s, he served as a director of the Texas State Fair. He has been a member of the Carthage Chamber of Commerce since 1960, and he has served as a director of the Texas Medical Center since 1965.

Thank you for your service, Mr. Birdwell. We wish you good health and a speedy recovery.

Labor of love lights up the night

By Sally Young

Ethlon Birdwell is a man who loves his community. He is one of the most active citizens in the area, and he has been a leader in many local organizations.

Birdwell has been a member of the Carthage Chamber of Commerce for more than 20 years, and he has served on the board of directors for 10 years. He has also been an active member of the Texas Medical Center since 1965.

Birdwell has been married for 40 years, and he is the father of two grown children. He has been a devoted husband and father, and he has always been a strong supporter of his community.

He has been a leader in many local organizations, and he has always been a strong supporter of his community. He has always been a strong supporter of his community. He has always been a strong supporter of his community. He has always been a strong supporter of his community.
The story of the first federal elections

The first federal elections in the United States were held on December 14, 1789, as part of the newly formed government under the Constitution. These elections were held to elect members of the U.S. House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate. The elections were held in the statehouses of the several states, and the electors chosen by the state legislatures convened to cast their votes. The counting of the electoral votes was also held on December 14, 1789, at the federal capitol in New York City. The first Congress convened on March 4, 1789, and the first session of Congress was held on April 14, 1789. The first president, George Washington, was inaugurated on April 30, 1789. The first federal elections were a significant milestone in the establishment of the United States as a sovereign nation.

Gloria in excelsis

GLORY be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise Thee, we bless Thee, we worship Thee, we glory Thee, we give thanks to Thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ, O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that took away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy, thou only art the Lord, thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father.
Dogs nudge Chapel Hill by 64-63

By TED LEE

CHAPEL HILL - Lee Osborne scored a game-high 24 points as North Carolina stage a rally from 11 down to win a hard-fought 64-63 victory over Chapel Hill in the opening game of the 16-AAAAA season.

The game was a back-and-forth contest, with both teams trading领先 throughout. Chapel Hill led 34-23 at halftime, but Osborne and his teammates turned up the defensive pressure in the second half, forcing 11 turnovers and limiting Chapel Hill to just 31 points in the second half.

Lee Osborne's 24 points were the difference in the game, as he made 8 of 11 field goals and 6 of 6 free throws. Edward Johnson added 14 points and 10 rebounds, while James Green contributed 13 points and 8 assists.

Chapel Hill's best player was Gary Heels, who scored 20 points and grabbed 12 rebounds. But he was held in check by Osborne and the North Carolina defense, and the Tar Heels were able to pull away in the final minutes.

The victory gives North Carolina a 1-0 record in the 16-AAAAA conference, while Chapel Hill falls to 0-1. The two teams will meet again in the final game of the season, which will be a crucial battle for the conference title.

Is there a Santa Claus?

(From the editorial section printed in the New York Times, December 25, 1867)

We have been hearing of Santa Claus again. We should be permitted to express the opinion that the time has come to look at the matter in a different light.

We are of the opinion that the world would be infinitely better if all the people who believe in Santa Claus would get together and make a movement to have a law passed that the name of Santa Claus shall not be used.

We believe in Santa Claus. You might as well believe in the moon. You might as well believe in the moon. You might as well believe in the moon. You might as well believe in the moon. You might as well believe in the moon.

Sybil's Scribbles

BY SYBIL WHIDON

I am getting my granddaughter of the second Christmas card from a friend. It shows a little girl standing on one foot on a sled, with Santa Claus coming down the chimney. I have been looking forward to this Christmas and making the cards all year long. It is such a beautiful card and it has brought me such joy.

I thought of Santa's Show Case card on "What is Right?" I agree very much with what it says. I am a subscriber to the paper and I am happy to have it. I am sure that your paper is the best and that it will continue to be the best.

In the Spirit of the Holiday Season

We would like to thank all our customers and friends for another wonderful year and we wish you all the best for the coming year.

We will be closed Saturday, December 23rd, and Monday, December 26th, for the Holiday.

To Our Patients And Friends

This is the time of year that we reflect back upon the years gone by. We have just completed another wonderful year in practice. We have treated thousands of patients during this time and have made a concerted effort to provide quality eye care.

Carthage Eye Associates has established itself as a leader in the field of ophthalmic medicine and as one of the largest independent, owner-operated clinics in East Texas.

We have 5,000 square foot eye clinic that includes outpatient ophthalmic diagnostic facilities, medical and refraction clinic and an optical dispensing and lens grading laboratory.

We have been serving the clinic in 1974, unparalleled in simple, core-Christian principles. All patients are treated equally, regardless of race, creed, or ability to pay. We regularly do charity work and we will continue to do so throughout the lifetime of our practice.

We strive to treat others as we would like to be treated. And we strive to offer each of our patients love and compassion.

Carthage Eye Associates has experienced unprecedented growth in recent years as a direct result of our commitment to these principles.

At 1008 close to an end, it also marks the end of our first decade of practice. We pledge to continue offering East Texas the best in eye care.

Sincerely:

Dr. Dennis D. Golden & Associates
