217 projects entered

Annual show, sale set for March 9, 10

March 9 and 10, area youngsters will gather a total of 217 projects at the Panola County Junior Livestock Show and Sale.

Competition will begin Tuesday evening March 9 at 8 p.m. with judging of dairy projects. Judging will be followed by a closed show, which will be open to all those interested. Judging will continue until 3 p.m. on Wednesday, March 10, at which time the show will close.

The Panola County Livestock Show and Sale is one of the largest of its kind in the state and is recognized throughout the livestock industry as an outstanding example of how agriculture and livestock can be presented to the public in a professional manner. It is a showcase for the best of what the area has to offer, and it provides an excellent opportunity for participants to learn about livestock management and showmanship.

The Panola County Fair and Livestock Show is held on the Panola County Fairgrounds located on Fannin Road, just west of Carthage. The fairgrounds are open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily during the fair, and admission is free.

For more information about the Panola County Fair and Livestock Show, contact the Panola County Extension Office at 903-582-7401 or visit their website at www.panolaextension.tamu.edu.

funeral planning...planning my own funeral in advance makes sense. By planning and paying for it myself, my family won't have to make difficult decisions when I'm not there to make the way I want it.

Forethought is funeral planning...before the need arises

I know it's an uncomfortable thing to talk about. But, it's an easier thing to talk about now. After the shock, everything happens so fast. There’s little time and so many decisions, everyone could really get overwhelmed. I know my family won’t have the problem. They already know how my funeral is going to be. They know what I want done. I’ve already planned and paid for it.

Call or write for details today...while you’re thinking about it.

Panola County Roots

By Robbi Butly

In the days gone by, the Oak Grove High School Art Club was a very active group. There were many art classes at the school and the students were very talented. One of the most popular classes was the art class taught by Mr. John Smith. The students in this class were required to create a piece of art that would be displayed in the school's art gallery. The art was very diverse and included paintings, sculptures, and drawings. The students were very proud of their work and were happy to show it off to their friends and family.

"FOUR EYES?" or "FISH EYES?"

A decade ago, a catastrophic surgery involving the removal of the cloudy lens in the eye.

Vision after surgery was improved by wearing very thick glasses. But the magnification of these thick lenses often gave the person the appearance of having "four eyes" or overcorrected, bulging "fish eyes."

Today, patients who did not receive a lens implant at the time of their cataract surgery, are candidates for Secondary Lens Implants, allowing them to throw away the thick, heavy glasses they have been forced to rely on for so many years.
