Total yearling sales this year in the Panola County Junior Livestock Show and Sale reached an average of more than $300.00, but prices were down in the annual sale purchased a total of $61,865.72 through the sale of their market hogs.

On the average, prices were for $282.67 per head last year,” said Sandy Young, editor of The Panola Watchman, whose market hogs were offered a decrease of more than $1,000.00.

Kyle Casey said his grand champion at $1,600.00, $500 more than the 1988 winner, Justin Cline’s grand champion at $1,000.00. The grand champion project was chosen by Leslie Brown, who paid $500.00 for his reserve champion. The grand champion, shown by Traci Heaton, was valued at $1,000.00, but the reserve champion, shown by Shanna Pannell, was valued at $600.00. The Panola County fair, sponsored by the Panola County Youth Commission, was held in April last year.

Although Ham Dent County has already approved a contract for a ramp for the fair, the contract was to be issued on the Ham Dent County site. But, an engineering report revealed the need on that site for a ramps and a new site was chosen, and the contract was assigned to the new site. The ramps will be located in the Ham Dent County site.

The ramps, which are to be made in the Ham Dent County site, will be made to standards made in the Ham Dent County site.

Children will be on the ramp and can sell their projects for free. The children will be allowed to show any project they want to show, and can enter the Ham Dent County site.

To save a life

Eva Hamner has taken over as chairman of the Panola County Blood Pool, with Linnell Wilson as her deputy chairman.

Linnell Wilson, chief of the Panola County Health Department, has been appointed to the position.

Wilson is a registered nurse and has worked for the county for 15 years. She is a graduate of Southwestern Oklahoma State University and has been involved in public health for more than 20 years.

Blood drives are important for the county, as blood is needed for a variety of medical procedures. The county's need for blood is especially high during the winter months, when blood donations are down.

Wilson said the blood drive is important for the county, as it helps to ensure that there will be enough blood for those in need.

Wilson said she is looking forward to working with the rest of the Panola County Blood Pool and to continue to help the county in any way possible.

Dream keeps Mrs. LaGrone behind wheelbarrow

Even on her 80th birthday

By Ann Morris

Dreams have been instrumental in the life of Mrs. LaGrone. "I still dream," she said. "I dream about my family, my garden, and especially about my husband." Mrs. LaGrone is known for her love of gardening and her dedication to her family. Her garden is the main source of her dreams, and she spends most of her waking hours tending to it.

For the occasion, Mrs. LaGrone wore a simple dress and a red rose in her hair. Her face was lit up with a warm smile and her voice was filled with the sound of joy. "I love gardening," she said. "It's my way of keeping my mind fresh and my spirit alive." Mrs. LaGrone has been gardening for as long as she can remember, and she continues to do so with the same enthusiasm as before.
