Absentee voting light within Panola County

By JIM WILSON

Editor

Ponca City News editor: Absentee voting was relatively light in both the city and suburban sections to the point voting representatives on Thursday. No one showed up for the city election at the Ponca City Courthouse at 2 p.m. No one was at the Ponca City library at 6 p.m. Absentee ballots were counted at the Ponca City Courthouse.

Regular voting hours may end by Saturday, May 6, because the hours are 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. on election days.

TheOkie, a Ponca City newspaper, reported that Absentee voting was over 80 percent of eligible voters.

In the city election, Ponca City Library's Board of supervisors and the City Council's board are both on the ballot. The Ponca City Courthouse is located at 500 S. Main Street. Registered voters can vote absentee ballots at the Ponca City Courthouse Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Ponca City library is located at 500 S. Main Street.

ETCOC representatives meet with public Monday

Representatives from the East Texas Council of Governments (ETCOC) will meet with the city council and city officials on Monday, May 9, at 6 p.m. The meeting will be held at the City Hall.

The ETCOC staff will be present to discuss the city's current projects and future plans. The staff will be available to answer any questions or concerns that council members or city officials may have.

In Gulf Coast Press competition

Editors earn five awards

HOUSTON — Panola County residents won five awards in the recent Texas Gulf Press Association (TGPA) competition. The awards were presented during the annual TGPA convention in Houston.

The awards included first place for Best Editorial, Best News Story, Best Feature Story, Best Sports Story, and Best Editorial Page. The newspaper won in the highest number of categories, earning it the top honor for General Excellence.

The awards are given to recognize outstanding performance in the field of journalism. The competition is open to newspapers throughout Texas. The winners are selected based on their creativity, writing skills, and overall quality of work.

The Panola County News, the newspaper serving the county, was one of the winners. The newspaper's coverage of local news and events, along with its strong editorial content, helped it earn several of the awards.

The newspaper's success is a testament to the hard work and dedication of its staff. The editors are committed to providing accurate, informative, and engaging content that is relevant to the readership.

Congratulations to the Panola County News on their well-deserved awards! Their dedication to excellence has earned them recognition in the field of journalism.
