Mayor's election decided by one vote

The mayor's race in Gary resulted in a high number of voter turnout and the results were about six to five in favor of Mayor Edward J. Koch. However, the margin was so narrow that the ballots were left unopened on Saturday morning, to allow for the recount of the votes cast for the mayor. The voting results were recountable to arrive at a final tally of the votes for the candidates.

In other city elections, Mayor Dick. on the issue of whether to raise the city's budget. He had called a special meeting of the city council to discuss the issue. The mayor received on this date for the continued support for the city budget. The city council would have to approve of the mayor's budget for the city to proceed with the fiscal year.

The mayor received 65.5% of the votes to win the election.

This was the closest election in the city's history.

The final tally for the mayor's election was Koch 65.5% and Weiser 34.5%.

Two of the important issues were unemployment in the city, Gary, and the budget deficit for the city.

Two candidates, Mayor Koch and Weiser, ran for the city's mayor's race. Mayor Koch had been in office for the past 10 years.

Shelby-Panola Assn. named to Top 10 list

According to an article in Memphis Magazine, Shelby-Panola County has been named to the Top 10 places to visit in the South. The article states that Shelby-Panola County is known for its rich history, beautiful landscapes, and excellent dining options.

The Shelby-Panola Assn. has been named to the Top 10 list for their work in promoting the county.

County listed disaster area

The county has been listed as a disaster area by President George Bush. The county has been hit by severe storms and flooding.

My house was flooded last year.

This is the second time the county has been listed as a disaster area by the federal government.

County school board elections

County school board elections and the budget were the main topics of the elections.

The budget crisis was a major issue in the elections as the county school board was facing a budget shortfall.

Keeling wins position

One of the three spots in the Shelby-Panola School District was won by Keeling. Keeling had been a teacher in the district for over 10 years.

The keeling was the last to be decided in the election. The election was very close as the final vote was 45-45.

Parks voted in

In the only unopposed seat of the Republican Primary School Board, Mike Riehle was elected with 100% of the vote.

Keeling voted in

The voting took place in the Shelby-Panola County Courthouse. The votes were tallied by the county clerk.

Hooper wins Gary election

Three candidates ran for the Gary City Council wards.

The election was won by Hooper, who received 50% of the vote.

The mayor's race in Gary resulted in a high number of voter turnout and the results were about six to five in favor of Mayor Edward J. Koch. However, the margin was so narrow that the ballots were left unopened on Saturday morning, to allow for the recount of the votes cast for the mayor. The voting results were recountable to arrive at a final tally of the votes for the candidates.

In other city elections, Mayor Dick. on the issue of whether to raise the city's budget. He had called a special meeting of the city council to discuss the issue. The mayor received on this date for the continued support for the city budget. The city council would have to approve of the mayor's budget for the city to proceed with the fiscal year.

The mayor received 65.5% of the votes to win the election.

This was the closest election in the city's history.

The final tally for the mayor's election was Koch 65.5% and Weiser 34.5%.

Two of the important issues were unemployment in the city, Gary, and the budget deficit for the city.

Two candidates, Mayor Koch and Weiser, ran for the city's mayor's race. Mayor Koch had been in office for the past 10 years.

Shelby-Panola Assn. has been named to the Top 10 list for their work in promoting the county.

County has been listed as a disaster area by President George Bush. The county has been hit by severe storms and flooding.

County school board elections were held. The elections were very close as the final vote was 45-45.

One of the three spots in the Shelby-Panola School District was won by Keeling. Keeling had been a teacher in the district for over 10 years.

The keeling was the last to be decided in the election. The election was very close as the final vote was 45-45.

Parks voted in the only unopposed seat of the Republican Primary School Board, Mike Riehle was elected with 100% of the vote.

Keeling voted in the only unopposed seat of the Republican Primary School Board, Mike Riehle was elected with 100% of the vote.

Hooper wins Gary election Three candidates ran for the Gary City Council wards.

The election was won by Hooper, who received 50% of the vote.

The mayor's race in Gary resulted in a high number of voter turnout and the results were about six to five in favor of Mayor Edward J. Koch. However, the margin was so narrow that the ballots were left unopened on Saturday morning, to allow for the recount of the votes cast for the mayor. The voting results were recountable to arrive at a final tally of the votes for the candidates.

In other city elections, Mayor Dick. on the issue of whether to raise the city's budget. He had called a special meeting of the city council to discuss the issue. The mayor received on this date for the continued support for the city budget. The city council would have to approve of the mayor's budget for the city to proceed with the fiscal year.

The mayor received 65.5% of the votes to win the election.

This was the closest election in the city's history.

The final tally for the mayor's election was Koch 65.5% and Weiser 34.5%.

Two of the important issues were unemployment in the city, Gary, and the budget deficit for the city.

Two candidates, Mayor Koch and Weiser, ran for the city's mayor's race. Mayor Koch had been in office for the past 10 years.

Shelby-Panola Assn. has been named to the Top 10 list for their work in promoting the county.

County has been listed as a disaster area by President George Bush. The county has been hit by severe storms and flooding.

County school board elections were held. The elections were very close as the final vote was 45-45.

One of the three spots in the Shelby-Panola School District was won by Keeling. Keeling had been a teacher in the district for over 10 years.

The keeling was the last to be decided in the election. The election was very close as the final vote was 45-45.

Parks voted in the only unopposed seat of the Republican Primary School Board, Mike Riehle was elected with 100% of the vote.

Keeling voted in the only unopposed seat of the Republican Primary School Board, Mike Riehle was elected with 100% of the vote.

Hooper wins Gary election Three candidates ran for the Gary City Council wards.

The election was won by Hooper, who received 50% of the vote.

The mayor's race in Gary resulted in a high number of voter turnout and the results were about six to five in favor of Mayor Edward J. Koch. However, the margin was so narrow that the ballots were left unopened on Saturday morning, to allow for the recount of the votes cast for the mayor. The voting results were recountable to arrive at a final tally of the votes for the candidates.

In other city elections, Mayor Dick. on the issue of whether to raise the city's budget. He had called a special meeting of the city council to discuss the issue. The mayor received on this date for the continued support for the city budget. The city council would have to approve of the mayor's budget for the city to proceed with the fiscal year.

The mayor received 65.5% of the votes to win the election.

This was the closest election in the city's history.

The final tally for the mayor's election was Koch 65.5% and Weiser 34.5%.

Two of the important issues were unemployment in the city, Gary, and the budget deficit for the city.

Two candidates, Mayor Koch and Weiser, ran for the city's mayor's race. Mayor Koch had been in office for the past 10 years.

Shelby-Panola Assn. has been named to the Top 10 list for their work in promoting the county.

County has been listed as a disaster area by President George Bush. The county has been hit by severe storms and flooding.

County school board elections were held. The elections were very close as the final vote was 45-45.

One of the three spots in the Shelby-Panola School District was won by Keeling. Keeling had been a teacher in the district for over 10 years.

The keeling was the last to be decided in the election. The election was very close as the final vote was 45-45.

Parks voted in the only unopposed seat of the Republican Primary School Board, Mike Riehle was elected with 100% of the vote.

Keeling voted in the only unopposed seat of the Republican Primary School Board, Mike Riehle was elected with 100% of the vote.

Hooper wins Gary election Three candidates ran for the Gary City Council wards.

The election was won by Hooper, who received 50% of the vote.

The mayor's race in Gary resulted in a high number of voter turnout and the results were about six to five in favor of Mayor Edward J. Koch. However, the margin was so narrow that the ballots were left unopened on Saturday morning, to allow for the recount of the votes cast for the mayor. The voting results were recountable to arrive at a final tally of the votes for the candidates.

In other city elections, Mayor Dick. on the issue of whether to raise the city's budget. He had called a special meeting of the city council to discuss the issue. The mayor received on this date for the continued support for the city budget. The city council would have to approve of the mayor's budget for the city to proceed with the fiscal year.

The mayor received 65.5% of the votes to win the election.

This was the closest election in the city's history.

The final tally for the mayor's election was Koch 65.5% and Weiser 34.5%.

Two of the important issues were unemployment in the city, Gary, and the budget deficit for the city.

Two candidates, Mayor Koch and Weiser, ran for the city's mayor's race. Mayor Koch had been in office for the past 10 years.

Shelby-Panola Assn. has been named to the Top 10 list for their work in promoting the county.

County has been listed as a disaster area by President George Bush. The county has been hit by severe storms and flooding.

County school board elections were held. The elections were very close as the final vote was 45-45.

One of the three spots in the Shelby-Panola School District was won by Keeling. Keeling had been a teacher in the district for over 10 years.

The keeling was the last to be decided in the election. The election was very close as the final vote was 45-45.

Parks voted in the only unopposed seat of the Republican Primary School Board, Mike Riehle was elected with 100% of the vote.

Keeling voted in the only unopposed seat of the Republican Primary School Board, Mike Riehle was elected with 100% of the vote.

Hooper wins Gary election Three candidates ran for the Gary City Council wards.

The election was won by Hooper, who received 50% of the vote.
Hail and farewell at Panola

Whitmer South Africa?

Page 1 of a document containing an article about the political situation in South Africa, discussing the influence of American companies and the challenges faced by them.

Panola Watchman

PERSPECTIVES

Hightower a man you love to love or hate

ROSES ARE RED

VIOLETS ARE BLUE

Trusts - pros, cons

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Held by the British, South Africa is a colony. The situation is a major political issue for South Africa, which is facing increasing tension with the British government.

The article discusses the challenges faced by American companies operating in South Africa, including the impact of the British government's policies and the political situation in the region.

The Panola Watchman

The article mentions various political figures and events, including Nelson Mandela and the British government.

The article also highlights the challenges faced by the British government in managing the political situation in South Africa, including the influence of American companies and the political tensions within the region.

The article concludes by expressing concern about the political situation in South Africa and the challenges faced by American companies operating in the region.
Galloway News
BY MRS. CLOS BAKER

"When my parents wrote to me saying they had planned their own funerals, I was shocked. Then I realized how sensible they were."

Beckville bands win first, second at festival

Buckville bands competed in the Sunday Music Festival at the Foy's Pond, where they competed against other local and national bands. The competitions were held in various categories, including soloists, duos, and groups. The awards were presented by Dr. Paul M. Bunyan, the director of the festival. The bands were judged on their musical skills and stage presence. The first place band was Buckville High School Band, followed by Buckville Elementary School Band in second place.

Area deaths

Karnes, Thad Borden
Funeral services for Karnes, Thad Borden were held at the Buckville Baptist Church. The service was conducted by Rev. Charles Johnson, pastor of the church. The family of Karnes, Thad Borden is planning a memorial service in the near future.

They chose Forethought...

funeral planning. My first reaction was, "What's the hurry?" But, the way they explained it to me, the importance of making decisions now to ensure I have all I need after my passing. I'm not sure how I could have arranged for my own funeral planning if I had not made arrangements now. I'm glad I made arrangements now for my future care and estate planning.

Baker-Koonce names honor students

Baker-Koonce named seven students as honor students this year. The students were selected based on their academic performance and extracurricular activities. The students are: John Williams, Kaylee Miller, Sarah Johnson, David Green, Emily Brown, Sarah White, and Emily Clark.

Peace named All-Around Cowboy

Peace was named All-Around Cowboy at the recent rodeo event. Peace won several awards for his performance in various events, including the Bareback Riding, Saddle Bronc Riding, and Tie-Down Roping.

Baker-Koonce names honor students

Baker-Koonce named seven students as honor students this year. The students were selected based on their academic performance and extracurricular activities. The students are: John Williams, Kaylee Miller, Sarah Johnson, David Green, Emily Brown, Sarah White, and Emily Clark.

LENNOX ANNOUNCES CASH-BACK OFFERS YOU CAN TAKE COMFORT IN!

LENNOX is offering cash-back offers on select models. These offers are available on qualifying purchases made before the end of this month. The cash-back amount varies depending on the model and the purchase amount. The offers are subject to availability and may not be combined with other offers. Visit your local LENNOX dealer for more information.

We Just Made Spring Greener.

We're offering 10.05% and 9.65% financing on select models. This offer is available on qualifying purchases made before the end of this month. The financing terms vary depending on the purchase amount and the model selected. The offer is subject to availability and may not be combined with other offers. Visit your local American Federal Bank for more information.
THANK YOU!
I Would Like To Thank The Voters
Who Elected Me To The Panola County
Water Board Saturday, May 6.
Thank You For Your Support.
Sincerely Yours,
Bob Penn

Panola Watchman

The Panola County Chamber of Commerce and Mondo Horneke
The Edith Milligan Visiting Nurses: 90th anniversary.
Sponsorers: "Cape" and "Barrie" from the "Operation Thank You!" Should have been a number of the Chamber's.

DISASTER

Heartfelt thanks to those who have assisted in the relief efforts for those affected by the recent natural disasters. The Panola County Chamber of Commerce and Mondo Horneke

CVFD puts out auto fires

The Central Volunteer Fire Department responded to an auto fire in the area on May 8th. The fire was quickly contained and the cause is under investigation.

HOSPITAL

Panola Memorial Hospital is currently accepting applications for multiple positions. Interested candidates are encouraged to apply online at the hospital's website.

CUT TO THE BONE!

PC graduation set for Friday

The Panola County High School graduating class of 2023 will be honored at the graduation ceremony on Friday, June 2nd, at 2 p.m. in the school's gymnasium.

Southern Sales wins title

Loop leader beats Chaps

Johnny Lee Holloway, football and basketball coach at Southern Sales, led his team to victory over Chaparral High School in a thrilling game.

Two hit home runs

Three gain lead in 13-14 action

Four teams gain lead in Dixie 7-8

Braves, Astros win again

Two still perfect in 9-10 division

Braves' Kris Johnson pitches a no-hitter as the Astros' David Martinez makes a spectacular catch. Both teams remain unbeaten in their respective divisions.

The Panola Watchman
Goes 3-0 in Dixie Six play
Unbeaten Morton
Texaco tops loop

Morton Texaco emerged 3-0 in the Dixie Six standings during spring play. Coach John Rice, center, praised his team for a solid season, attributing their success to teamwork and dedication. "Our players showed a lot of spirit," he said, "and that's what won us the games."

Dixie Six standings

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Team</th>
<th>Wins</th>
<th>Losses</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Morton Texaco</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Texaco</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other Teams</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Forfeit alters standings
Kiwanis perfect; gains 11-12 lead

Kiwanis Club won a forfeit against the 11-12 Craftsman, gaining a perfect season. "We showed a lot of good sportsmanship," said Coach Bob Johnson, "and that's what makes us strong as a team." The Kiwanis are now undefeated and poised for a strong performance in the upcoming season.

In women's softball
Collectors cop title

Collectors emerged as champions in the women's softball league, defeating the 11-12 Craftsman in the final game. "We played with a lot of heart," said Coach Mary Smith, "and our teamwork carried us to the top." The Collectors' season was marked by consistent efforts and a strong spirit.

Business-Professional Review
An Advertising Program Planned To Inform Area Residents
Of Services Rendered By Firms On This Page

PUT THIS SPACE TO WORK FOR YOU. CALL 988-4008 AND SEE RESULTS!

PUT $25.00 FOR A FREE FAMILY OUTING

An Exploration

Whatever the job, a Stahl can cut it.

Carriage-Bow-A-Rama

This Space For Sale
Call for details on our advertising specialists help you.

This Space For Sale

Rodgers Equipment Co.

A Smart Idea

Small Ad
Get Big Results
Contact Us

D.J.'s Greenhouse

This Space For Sale

The Patterson Insurance Agency

This Space For Sale

This Space For Sale

The Patterson Insurance Agency

This Space For Sale

The Patterson Insurance Agency

This Space For Sale

The Patterson Insurance Agency

This Space For Sale

The Patterson Insurance Agency

This Space For Sale

The Patterson Insurance Agency

Sees EASY FABRICS

WELDING

FLEXIBLE GLASS & SCREWED ROOFING

AFTERNIGHT TRUCK PARTS

For All Your Fish
And Seafood Needs

CASH

Cash loans up to $300 usually in one hour or less

SECURITY FINANCE
First Thomas reunion planned at Davis Park

First Things First

Spot advertising pays!

Announcing money-saving news for State Farm drivers 50 and over.

Perfect For Mother's Day

-20% Off

On Lingerie

This Includes Hotel Cottages, Panama, Florida

New Arrivals Daily

Large Selection Of Accessories

The Collection