At college
Golden named trustee

Dr. Dennis Golden has been named to the board of trustees of Panola College. He succeeds Hubbard Griffin, who retired.

President Gary McDonald emphasized the importance of the new trustee, saying that he was welcomed with open arms.

In a press release, the college announced that Golden will join other members of the board in providing guidance and support.

Top performers coming to annual county rodeo

The annual county rodeo, scheduled for this weekend, is expected to attract top performers from across the state.

Several events, including bronc riding, steer wrestling, and bull riding, will be featured. Performers will compete for cash prizes and trophies.

Fairfamers may be in county

A variety of activities are planned for Fair fax, a local fair celebrating the harvest season.

Participants can expect to see competitions such as livestock showing, baking contests, and photography exhibitions.

BY MRS. CLOIS BAKER

Do you have the kid with the toy that no one can seem to find? Do you hate having a messy house because there's no place for anything? Then you need a kid! Sure, they can be a pain, but they sure can make your house look like a lighthouse! Some kids even have a way of finding things that are hidden away. It's like they have a built-in magnifying glass! So, if you're tired of your house looking like a ghost town, give a kid a try! They'll make your house look like a well-organized treasure chest! And trust me, the only thing missing will be the sense of accomplishment! They'll have fun and you'll have peace! Win-win, right? Who would've thought?!
