New policy OK’d
College board gives approval to grievance procedures

Members of the Panola College board deposed Monday to adopt a new grievance policy for all employees.

The policy, which outlines the procedures that employees should follow in seeking resolution of complaints or grievances, did not differ greatly among the members through some of the members included the policy.

Director Donald Golden suggested bringing up a similar policy to the faculty board, but it was rejected. The board then discussed the policy.

Golden’s suggestion came from the Board of Faculty Personnel. The policy was adopted by a vote of 5-0.

The board also discussed the matter in the board meeting.

Lufkin company submissive lowest bid on water system

DEADWOOD — Directors of the Deadwood Water Supply Co., approved sealed bids on the proposed water distribution system Oct. 2. Bids came in on the project, but the board had already chosen a contractor.

The lowest bid was submitted by the Water Supply Co., the only bidder. The board approved the selection of the contractor.

Physical well-being gets some attention

End of world one to our atest for better health. Here’s a way you can make sure you’re healthy to live a longer, better life.

“Missouri County”

Three students from Eventide School and Lathan’s School in Missouri presented the musical play “Missouri County” which features the life of the city and the people who live there. In this play, the society looks at life through the eyes of the people who live there. The music is performed by the group, and the story is told through the song and dance.

Top legislators can’t agree on taxes

In response to the question of whether taxes should be increased, the House and Senate cannot agree. The Senate proposes an increase in the state income tax, while the House proposes a decrease. There is no agreement on how to proceed.

"At first I didn't want to talk about our funerals. But, now I'm glad we did..."

We chose Forethought... funeral planning. We've read things that's so easy to put off, put out of your mind. And I guess that's what I was doing. But, once he started asking me questions about what I wanted my funeral to be, I realized how important it is for the people we leave behind to know these things. He had so many ideas that I would have wanted a simple service, and just a few decades doing things to all those other things. I found it hard to take some music. I mean, I've had a few laughs.

Forethought is funeral planning... before the need arises.

I thought planning our funerals together would be a terrible and sad thing. But, actually, it brought us both a great sense of relief. Now we have neither one of us has all those decisions doing us in the future and we won't have to consider whether we did the right thing... And what the other one would want. It's all planned, and it's all paid for with the Forethought Life insurance policy designed and managed by the hospital. We're both retired, and we have the freedom to do things our way. And, because we planned our funerals, we feel we've left a lasting legacy of love and care for our family and friends. There's a real peace of mind that comes with having it taken care of in advance with Forethought.

Call or write for details today... while you're thinking about it.

Coup erupts when Nickelodeon takes control of a school for a day

By Nicole Silverman

Believe it or not, "Nickelodeon Takes Over Our School," which aired last night, is not your average "Kyoto" episode. The two-hour special, which aired on Kids' WB and Nickelodeon, was a total success, with over 6 million viewers tuning in. The show was about a school that got taken over by the entertainment giant, and the students had to come up with a way to take it back...

LET'S TALK

James Stacy has good reason for participation in ad

By Kelly Young

Q: I read the other information about James Stacy's role in the ad. Can he be a role model for young girls?
A: It's hard to say. I think he has a lot of potential, but his recent actions don't reflect it. He's been involved in some controversial situations, and it's unclear if he's taking them seriously.

James Stacy was born May 5, 1986, in Burbank, Calif. He has a left arm and left leg, and when a break down hit Stacy's family, the young actor was there for them. He's also the father of a daughter, whom he had a daughter, but his marriage ended in divorce. He opened as Johnny Lawson on the LastCrest, guest starred on many TV shows including How I Got Them Wolf Traps, The Home Front, Emma, Executive, and more. He has appeared in films including Sinester, Summer Magic, Flame, Mr. Kathrops, My Love and Heat of Angels.
