Cats score late, defeat Dogs 8-7

By TED LEACH

Carthage coach Jimmy LaVell thought the ball was out of the scoring area when he called a timeout before the half. But referee Morris Brown made the call and the Bulldogs had driven into Carthage territory. Carthage scored the first touchdown of the game on a plugged run and went into the locker room at halftime with a 6-0 lead.

Carthage then scored on a plugged run in the second quarter. Westminster came into the game with 13 straight wins and this was the first loss of the season. Westminster scored on 2 of 3 attempts in the second quarter. Carthage scored on 6 of 6 attempts in the second quarter.
