Freshmen eyeing winning season

By Tom Sneed

Chiefs football looks at a district win, perhaps for the first time in school's history. A championship run is the goal among freshmen.

The team is 3-2 and will play Carthage Friday in Carthage.

"We have an exceptionally talented team," said Thomas Jefferson coach Tom Sneed. "We have a lot of new faces, and we're learning to play together."

Lloyd Bridges plays hotshot lawyer in 'Cross of Fire'

Variety of roles add color to actor's list
By RON ANDEW
Lloyd Bridges takes us along on his latest journey into television's rich variety of roles in the new film 'Cross of Fire.' Bridges, who is known for his versatile acting skills, portrays a hotshot lawyer in the film. His role requires him to exhibit a range of emotions and intelligence, making it a challenging but rewarding performance. Bridges' portrayal of the lawyer captures the essence of a man who is both determined and principled, making him an admirable figure in the story.

‘Knots’ role puts actress’ career back on track

Betsy Palmer feels back in shape for Aunt Virginie role in‘Knots Landing.’

Betsy Palmer, in her new role as Aunt Virginie in ‘Knots Landing,’ is back in shape after a long illness. The actress, who has struggled with health issues in the past, is looking forward to her new role as she begins filming. Palmer feels that the part of Aunt Virginie is a great opportunity for her to showcase her acting skills and return to the limelight. Her performance in the role, she believes, will bring her back to the top of her game after a long absence from the screen.

New television witch not grown-up version of Tabitha

By Polly Vreede

Witches, begone! A new television witch is not a grown-up version of Tabitha, according to Patsy Palmer, the actress who played Tabitha from "The Magic School Bus." The new witch, Cleo, is played by British actress Jodie Foster, known for her role in "The Silence of the Lambs," and she is not a grown-up version of Tabitha.

LET'S TALK

Tabitha was played by the actress who portrayed Tabitha in "The Magic School Bus," according to Patsy Palmer, who says the new witch, Cleo, is not a grown-up version of Tabitha.
