Copeland addresses Vets Saturday

Copeland, member of VFW Post 2002, will have the distinguished honor of hosting District 29's Annual Observance of Veterans Day. The event will take place at 11 a.m. at the VFW Hall in Centralia, with the Army Air Forces L. Copeland will serve as guest speaker for the morning assembly.

The highly decorated veteran has served in the military since 1942 and has held various positions, including the position bestowed by the Army Air Forces L. Copeland.

In recognition of his service, the Army Air Forces L. Copeland was honorably discharged from the service.

On December 23, 1944, L. Copeland was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for his actions in the European Theater of Operations.

The Distinguished Service Cross is the second highest award for military valor in the United States.

L. Copeland has served as a member of the VFW Post 2002 for over 20 years, actively participating in various events and activities.

In addition to his service in the armed forces, L. Copeland has been involved in numerous civic and community organizations. He is currently a member of the American Legion Post 60.

The event will feature speeches, songs, and a wreath-laying ceremony. The public is invited to attend and pay tribute to those who have served our country.

The VFW Post 2002 is located at 123 Main Street in Centralia, WA. For more information, please contact the VFW Post 2002 at 555-555-5555.

Dogs want end to losing streak

By TED LARSON
It's been a long, long time since the Stephens County National team has tasted victory over a fellow Bulldogs team. To the Stephens County coaching staff and players, the win was yet another reward for their team's hard work and dedication.

Dogs want end to losing streak

By TED LEACH

It’s hard to believe the season is about to end. It’s been a long journey for the first year players, and they’ve all made some great strides.

"It’s been a challenging season," said senior captain David Johnson. "But we’re hopeful that we can end the losing streak this Thursday.

Penalties, fumbles kill Carthage playoff hopes

Kilgore benefits from CHS charity

By TED LEAHY

Carthage spoiled another playoff game with a major penalty during the game; an unexpected fumble and a missed block in the final drive of the game.

Penalties have been a major factor in Carthage’s playoff games against Kilgore, and they were a major factor again in the game.

A fumble by Carthage’s quarterback on the first drive of the game set up Kilgore’s first touchdown.

Carthage quarterback Johnny Jenkins was hit by a Kilgore defender and fumbled the ball, which was picked up by Kilgore’s P.J. Wilson at the Carthage 12-yard line. The Kilgore quarterback, Hiram Jackson, kept the ball and ran it in for a touchdown.

The Kilgore defense was able to hold Carthage to only 5 yards of offense in the first half, but Carthage came back strong in the second half.

Carthage scored on a touchdown run by Jenkins on the first play of the second half, cutting the Kilgore lead to 13-7.

The Carthage defense held Kilgore to just 36 yards of offense in the second half, but the Kilgore offense was able to score on a touchdown pass from Hiram Jackson to Billy Johnson, giving Kilgore a 20-7 lead.

In the final drive of the game, Carthage drove down to the Kilgore 15-yard line, but a fumble by Carthage’s quarterback on the first play of the drive set up Kilgore’s second touchdown.

The Kilgore defense was able to hold Carthage to only 5 yards of offense in the second half, but the Kilgore offense was able to score on a touchdown pass from Hiram Jackson to Billy Johnson, giving Kilgore a 20-7 lead.

Dog jsy face Pine Tree in finale

By TED LEAHY

The Carthage Bulldogs are looking to advance to the playoffs for the eighth straight year.

They have a tough task, however, as they face off against Pine Tree in the finale.

The Bulldogs are coming off a 49-0 loss to Kilgore, and they will need to perform better if they hope to advance.

Pine Tree is a tough team, but Carthage has the experience needed to take them down.

The Bulldogs have a solid defense, and they will need to rely on it if they hope to advance.

Carthage needs to hold Pine Tree to less than 10 points if they hope to advance to the playoffs.

Dennis Weaver hitches up to reprise investigator role

Character’s actions difficult for actress to comprehend

The answer to the Crossword Quiz is hidden within the answer to the puzzle. To find the answer, unscramble the letters noted with asterisks within the puzzle.

Ann Schermer plays around ex-man’s sister

By Mary Ann Golden, Staff Writer

The Love Bug was a popular television series in the 1960s, and it’s being revived for a new generation. The show follows the adventures of an anthropomorphic bug named Tony and his human friends. The bug, played by Dennis Weaver, is a private investigator and solves various mysteries for his clients.

However, Weaver’s character has some ethical dilemmas to overcome. In one episode, he gets involved in a case involving endangered species, which puts him at odds with the law. Despite knowing what’s right and wrong, Weaver’s character must navigate the legal system to clear his name.

The actress who plays Weaver’s ex-man’s sister struggles to understand his actions. She’s trying to piece together why he did certain things, but she’s finding it difficult to comprehend his motives.

In another scene, Weaver’s character must choose between his loyalty to his employer and his ethical principles. He faces a tough decision that could affect the lives of others.

These ethical dilemmas make it difficult for the actress to understand her character’s actions. She’s trying hard to interpret his behavior, but it’s challenging.

As the show progresses, Weaver’s character is forced to confront his past mistakes and make amends. He’s learning valuable lessons about integrity and ethics, which makes the audience appreciate his character’s journey.

The Love Bug is a heartwarming show that teaches important life lessons. It’s a must-watch for anyone who enjoys adventure and mystery.

Liz paired with Laurence Harvey in not one, but two movies

By Polly Yeager

Q: I've heard that Liz Taylor was paired with Laurence Harvey in two movies. Is there any truth to this?

A: Yes, Liz Taylor and Laurence Harvey were paired together in two movies, "The Empyrean" and "The Magnificent." Harvey was a young and rising star at the time, and his partnership with Taylor was highly anticipated. However, it's worth noting that Harvey was struggling with alcoholism, which may have impacted the success of the films.

LETS TALK

As for the second movie, "The Empyrean," it was released in 1962. Taylor played a nun who falls in love with Harvey's character, a young man with a dark past. The film was a critical and commercial failure, but Taylor's performance was praised by critics.
