Homemakers school features recipes, helpful cooking hints

Local residents can acquire "Homemakers" folders, Feb. 14, at the 39th Homemakers School to be held at 7 p.m. at the Carnegie High School Auditorium. The event, which is sponsored by the Homemakers Club, will feature demonstrations and classes in various homemaking subjects. The classes, which will be taught by various homemakers and members, will cover a wide range of subjects including cooking, baking, sewing, and more. These classes will be open to the public and will be held in the evenings and on weekends from January 27 to February 4. The dates and times of each class will be announced in the Homemakers School newsletter. The Homemakers School offers a unique opportunity for learning new skills and sharing knowledge with others in the community.

Area residents participate, assist in Houston stock show

Panola College students and faculty members will participate in the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, which is scheduled for March 3. The college's involvement in the event includes assisting with various tasks such as ticket sales, food service, and First Aid. The college's participation is an opportunity for students to gain valuable experience in the field of hospitality and to showcase the skills and talents of the college's hospitality programs. The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo is one of the largest and most prestigious events of its kind in the United States, attracting visitors from all over the world. The college's participation in the event is part of the college's ongoing efforts to support and promote the growth and development of the hospitality industry in the region.

Panola College names Homecoming Queen, King

Panola College President Dr. Mary McWiles announced the new Panola College Homecoming Queen and King on February 7, during the Homecoming Banquet. The new Homecoming Queen and King will represent the college at various events and functions throughout the academic year. The Homecoming Banquet is an annual event that brings together students, faculty, and staff to celebrate the college's achievements and to honor the students who have excelled academically and athletically. The new Homecoming Queen and King will be selected based on criteria such as leadership, academic performance, and community involvement.

Stocks for 1990

1990 was an excellent year, but what about for 1991? A new report from Edward D. Jones & Co. offers an overview of investing and the economy in 1990 and recommends certain stocks that should benefit from national and global economic trends in 1991.

In a similar report published January 8, 1990, our recommended stocks performed among the leaders in the Dow Jones Industrial Average through the end of the year. We expect the recommended performance to continue. As a result of the trends, we expect the new Stocks for 1990 to be automatic.
