Bridge topic of meeting

Patty Lake Road residents met with County Commissioner Lloyd Hudson and State Highway Director John Sepstead recently to discuss the repair of the overpass that crosses the road about a mile south of Lake Essential. The new bridge, which had been under construction for several months, had finally been completed and opened to traffic.

Hospital plans $4 million expansion

By JULIANA GENTRY

Affirming Texas hospitals have been in 1990, Governor Ann Richards recently visited Panola County Hospital to announce the county's plans for a $4 million expansion.

To prevent Panola County from remaining the only hospital in the county, the hospital plans to expand its facilities to include a new emergency department, an additional 20 beds, and a new surgery center. The expansion is expected to be completed by 1992.

Peggy Southwell/Panola

A special needs student at Panola County Hospital, Peggy Southwell, was recently honored for her work with the hospital's special needs patients. Peggy's efforts have been recognized for her dedication and hard work.

252 students to compete in 43rd livestock show

The Panola County 4-H Club will host the annual livestock show this year. The show is open to all students in Panola County.

County-wide 911 service debated

Panola County Commissioners have recently been considering implementing a county-wide 911 service. The current system relies on individual county districts, but a county-wide service would provide faster response times.

Commissions to hear hospital expansion plan

Whether or not Panola General Hospital will receive a new $4 million expansion will be decided during a meeting of the Panola County Commissioners Court on Monday. The public is invited to attend the meeting.

Know Your Heritage

BY LES C. LAGARTO

It may not be easy to find a way to get your kids interested in history. But the next time you plan a trip, show them that the past does matter. It's not just the places you see, but the stories of people who walked where they are walking.

Music club wins blue ribbon

The Indianola Music Club, led by members of the family, won the blue ribbon at the state fair. The club presented their favorite songs and received positive reviews from the judges. We are proud of their achievements. Keep up the good work!

My opponent, Mr. Johnson, decided publicly that he was for increasing and broadening your sales tax.

If he thinks increasing the sales tax to include items like food and medicine and increasing a sales tax rate that is already one of the highest in the nation is a good idea, let’s just plain wrong! We can’t afford any more taxes, especially for senior citizens.

If you want to stop this tax and spend, award money on the lawn, I need your vote on March 18th for John Heath.

The Tool Without A Home

This is the story of the bridge too,
One that is built in the city of silence too.

Where the people are strangers,
And the bridge is their haven.

This bridge is a symbol of hope,
And the people are the ones who keep it alive.

It is a place where the people gather,
To share their stories and their dreams.

The bridge is a place of refuge,
For those who seek it.

The bridge is a place of beauty,
And the people are the ones who make it so.

It is a place where the people come together,
And the bridge is their home.

The people who live on this bridge,
Know that it is their home.

This bridge is a symbol of the human spirit,
And the people are the ones who keep it alive.

The bridge is a place of community,
And the people are the ones who make it so.

It is a place where the people come together,
And the bridge is their home.

The people who live on this bridge,
Know that it is their home.

The bridge is a symbol of the human spirit,
And the people are the ones who keep it alive.

The bridge is a place of beauty,
And the people are the ones who make it so.

It is a place where the people come together,
And the bridge is their home.

The people who live on this bridge,
Know that it is their home.

The bridge is a symbol of the human spirit,
