Ninja Turtles hit Carthage via Tradesfolk Day Saturday

A popular children's comic book and television series, "Ninja Turtles," will be on display at the Tradesfolk Day celebration in Carthage on Saturday.

The Ninja Turtles, a group of four anthropomorphic turtles who are trained in martial arts, will be featured in a special display at the Tradesfolk Day celebration.

The display will include props and costumes from the popular franchise.

Tradesfolk Day, a traditional celebration of Carthage's history and culture, will feature demonstrations, live music, and food.

"Tradesfolk Day is a great opportunity to experience the history and culture of Carthage," said a city official.

Allums good choice
Panda General Hospital has made a good choice in hiring Wayne Allums.

Employed by the state to make former administrator Bill Demby's replacement, Allums selection makes sense. County line made the decision and it's now obvious that Allums will make a wise decision when he needs Allums as interim administrator.
