Panola County seeks creation of postal district

Panola County Commissioners, in their regular meeting Monday morning, announced they would be creating a new postal district in the county.

The new district will be known as the "Panola County #1 District." It will consist of all areas within the county that are not currently served by the postal service.

The commissioners said they had been working on the creation of the new district for several months and had consulted with the Postal Service about the feasibility of the project.

The proposed district would include the cities of Carthage, Sabine, and Trinity, as well as several rural areas.

"We felt it was important to have a postal service in these areas," said Commissioner Bob Seale. "We believe it will benefit the residents of these communities and help to stimulate economic growth."

Leaves of Lake Charles came in the nick of time, late April, and organizers of the Lake Charles Jazz Festival were able to avert a last-minute situation that would have resulted in rain-soaked performances. Festival organizers were faced with the possibility of having to call off the festival due to the threat of severe weather, which had been a concern for several days. In the end, the weather cooperated, and the festival proceeded as planned.

A joint installation is being held at the Museum of American History and the Louisiana Museum of Art, featuring works by contemporary artists from the South. The exhibition, titled "Artists of the South," showcases a diverse range of contemporary works, including paintings, sculptures, and installations. The exhibition aims to highlight the creativity and innovation of artists working in the South today.

Helen Still, a nurse at the Lake Charles Hospital, recently retired after 40 years of service. She was presented with a plaque and a key to the city at a special ceremony held in her honor. Mayor Louis Jackson presented the plaque, while the key was provided by the city council. The ceremony was attended by friends and family, who celebrated Helen's dedication and service.

Longtime resident and business owner, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, attended a dinner party celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. The event was held at the Country Club, where guests enjoyed a four-course meal and live music. The couple was honored for their long and happy marriage.

Floyd Johnson, a retired teacher, celebrated his 80th birthday with a family gathering at the Lake Charles Yacht Club. The event was attended by his children and grandchildren, as well as close friends. The family enjoyed a meal and cake, and many shared memories of Floyd's remarkable life.

Lake Charles, Louisiana, is a city in southwestern Louisiana, known for its oil and gas industry, as well as its rich cultural heritage. The city is home to several museums and cultural institutions, including the Lake Charles Museum of Art and the Lake Charles Historical Museum. It is also the site of the annual Lake Charles Jazz Festival, which attracts music lovers from around the country.

Show business was inevitable for 'Growing Pains' Tracey Gold

By Peter Van Sant

Q: Tracey Gold, you're an actress and producer. What was it like to be growing up on a TV show?

A: It was tough. I was 8 years old when I started and had to work from 5 a.m. to 3 a.m. every day. But I loved it. I had fun and enjoyed the experience.

Q: Did you have any favorite moments or memories from the show?

A: I always loved playing the character of C. J. Anthony. She was a strong and independent woman who didn't need a man to support her. I also remember the episode where I had to pretend to be a boy to save the town.

Q: What advice would you give to younger actors starting out in the industry?

A: Be yourself. Don't try to be someone else. And always work hard. It's not easy in this business, but if you're passionate about what you do, you'll succeed.

Public Notice

To all fishermen and current inhabitants move area.

The city of Murfreesboro has suspended all fishing activities in the area due to contamination of the water. We urge all residents to avoid contact with the water and to refrain from eating any fish caught in the affected area. The contamination is believed to be caused by a spill of industrial waste from a nearby factory.

Remembered

Mrs. Helen Jones, long-time resident of Murfreesboro, passed away last week at the age of 90. She was known for her kindness and community service.

Community Events

- Family Fare: The city's annual fair begins this weekend. Tickets are available at the door.
- Let's Talk: Tracey Gold will be giving a talk at the local library. Tickets are free but reservations are required.
- Public Notice: We urge all residents to remain vigilant and to report any unusual activity to the authorities.
