PGH administrator hits floor running

New Panola General Hospital Administrator Gary Insal Hudson, 48, began his second Monday after being transferred from the hospital board to chief administrator. Hudson, who had attended a similar position as associate administrator of Borderland Hospitals, brought new ideas and an experienced eye to the hospital.

NV. But for the most part, it was a busy day from Interim administrator who was not a permanent employee. Although he had been in the hospital for some weeks, Hudson had only met with several other people in the hospital.

Potlatch talent show to feature young talent

"Youth Tchaikovsky," the highlight event of the March of Dimes fundraising campaign, will be held in the form of a talent show. The show will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Carthage High School Auditorium.

The competition will feature a variety of acts, including vocalists, instrumentalists, and dance groups. The show is open to anyone interested in showcasing their talent.

Beckville ISD honored for excellent schools

Beckville ISD has been named as one of the top schools in the state, according to the Texas Education Agency (TEA). The district recently received an award for outstanding performance, reflecting its commitment to providing high-quality education for all students.

Despite challenges, the district continues to excel in areas such as academics, extracurricular activities, and community involvement. The recognition serves as a testament to the hard work and dedication of the teachers, staff, and students.

Shady Grove News

How are you today? This Tuesday, I was at the Shady Grove High School where my son is a student. The school has a wonderful atmosphere, with a lot of activities happening throughout the year. The students seem to be very engaged and passionate about their education. The teachers are very knowledgeable and dedicated to their students. Overall, it was a great experience for me.

Dilapidated house now repurposed as a business

The dilapidated house located at 101 East Main Street in Carthage, the former home of Dr. Quinn H. Browning, has been repurposed as a business. The building has undergone a complete renovation, with new flooring, paint, and plumbing. The new business, named The Dr. Quinn H. Browning Center, will house a variety of businesses, including a law office, a real estate agency, and a courier service.

The center is currently under construction, and will open to the public in early November. For more information, please call the center at 697-7851.

Environmentalists call for stricter regulations on coal mining

Environmentalists have called for stricter regulations on coal mining in the Carthage area. The area is known for its rich coal deposits, but the mining has been controversial due to concerns over air and water pollution. The environmentalists are calling for the government to impose stricter regulations on the mining companies, including limits on the amount of coal that can be mined, and stricter monitoring of emissions and runoff.

For more information, please contact the Sierra Club at 697-7851.

Carrollton native of Kansas

Charles Watson, a Carrollton native of Kansas, and his wife, Lucille, have returned to their home in Carrollton after spending the past three years in Kansas City.

Watson, who was born and raised in Kansas, said he misses the state's climate and the many friends he made there.

"I miss the flat plains and the sunshine," Watson said. "I miss the people there. They're a friendly bunch."

Watson, who is a retired teacher, said he enjoys spending time with his wife and their three children.

"I like being with my family," he said. "We have a great time together."

The Watsons plan to stay in Carrollton for the rest of their lives.

"We love this town," Watson said. "It's a great place to live."

The couple has been married for 40 years and has three children: Jeff, 21, a college student; Julie, 18, a high school student; and John, 16, a junior high student.

The Watsons have been active in the Carrollton community for many years, volunteering at local events and organizations.

"We've always tried to give back to the community," Watson said. "We feel blessed to live here."

Carthage faces Lindale in 16-AAA opener Friday

Homecoming guest big, versatile

By TED LEACH

Carthage's opening game against Lindale Monday night will feature a big and versatile player on both sides of the ball for the visiting Eagles. Lindale offense will be led by 220-pound running back John Tessendorf, who has averaged 6.0 yards per carry in three games. The senior has scored five touchdowns in three games. Lindale defense will be led by 230-pound defensive tackle Tony Willcoxon, who has recorded 11 tackles for loss in five games. The Eagles are expected to have a challenging week against a tough Lindale team.

Turnovers costly as Bearcats bow

Fumble, interception help Tenaha win, 19-14

The Panola Watchman

Turnovers were the key factor in the Bearcats’ 19-14 loss to the Tenaha Indians. The Bearcats committed three turnovers, while the Indians committed none.

In the first quarter, the Indians scored on an interception return. In the second quarter, the Indians added a field goal. The Bearcats scored a touchdown in the third quarter, but the Indians countered with a field goal to secure the win.

Timely defense and strong special teams were the key factors in the Indians’ victory.

Time runs out on Dogs when late field goal fails

The Panola Watchman

In the final minute of the game, the Dogs had a chance to win with a field goal attempt. However, the Dogs missed the field goal, leaving the score at 17-17.

The Indians made a late touchdown on a running play, but the Dogs were unable to respond. The game ended with the Indians on top, 17-17.

The Dogs had a strong offensive performance, scoring two touchdowns. However, they were unable to convert their opportunities and missed a crucial field goal.

The Indians’ defense stood strong throughout the game, preventing the Dogs from scoring efficiently.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has filed an application with the Federal Communications Commission to construct an experimental antenna on a tower in the Panola area. The antenna will be used for experimental wireless voice and data services. Public hearings on the application will be held at a date and time to be announced.

"21 Jumpstreet" still going, but without Johnny Depp

Johnny Depp, who became a household name as a teenager in the 1980s, has now become a man. The actor, who grew up in New Orleans, Louisiana, is now starring in "21 Jump Street," a hit series that ran on Fox from 1987 to 1991.

Depp, who was born in New Orleans, Louisiana, in 1969, was just a teenager when he began acting in 1984. He starred in "Don't Look Now," a 1987 film directed by John Badham, and in "Blue Velvet," a 1988 film directed by David Lynch.

Depp, who is now 32 years old, has been in several films and television shows. He has won several awards, including an Academy Award for Best Actor in a Supporting Role for his role in "Ed Wood."
