Potlatch festival truly a family-oriented occasion

Children's fair features games for kids

"Children's fair" is the theme for 1989 Potlatch Children's Fair. The event is set for Oct. 13 and will be a family-oriented occasion with games for children.

"The fair is our attention to the children," said Potlatch children's fair founder, "and it's for them to have fun and enjoy the event of the year.

Arts and crafts play vital role in festival

Arts and crafts will always be a featured attraction. Children can make their own crafts and paint in the Potlatch Festival main area. The festival will feature a wide variety of crafts, including painting, drawing, sculpture, and other forms of art. The festival will also feature a variety of food vendors, live music, and entertainment for children and adults alike.

In addition to the arts and crafts, there will be a costume contest, a children's parade, and a petting zoo. The festival will also feature a variety of games, including a children's Ferris wheel, a children's roller coaster, and a children's carousel.

Unbeaten Carthage, Henderson headed for showdown

Jv's win, take Cats out of top spot

By PAT LEWIN

Carthage Athletics head the 16-AAA standings going into their game against Henderson on Saturday, October 21. The Cats are ranked 14th in the state and the Henderson Bulldogs are ranked 22nd. The game will be played at Carthage's Homecoming weekend.

Carthage's coach, Billy Brink, said, "We're looking forward to this game. Henderson is a tough team and we know they're going to give us a good fight. We're just hoping to come out on top." Henderson's coach, Larry Johnson, echoed Brink's sentiments, saying, "We're definitely going to give Carthage a tough game. They're a great team and we're going to do our best to upset them."
