Fifty-one percent of Panola County voters flex political muscle

Richards surprises Williams in bitter race

Panola County voters made their collective voice heard Tuesday, choosing between two candidates in several local races, and the results were a surprise for many. According to unofficial election results, Extras- Williams, Richards garnered 50 percent of the vote to win the District 2 seat on the Panola County Board of Education. The race was too close to call, with Richards leading by 19 votes. However, the final tally from the Panola County Board of Elections will determine the winner.

Richard Bartell, publisher of the Daily News, said the race was tight, with both candidates working hard to carry the county.

"Every effort was made to ensure a fair and unbiased election," Bartell said. "We are confident that the final results will reflect the will of the voters." Richards has pledged to work with all members of the Board of Education to improve educational opportunities for local students.

"I was pleased with the turnout," he said. "It's a testament to the commitment of the community to our schools." Richards promised to be a strong advocate for the students and teachers of Panola County.

The Sheriff's Report

Sheep killing is the main event in this week's annual festival at Kerman, in Iran. The festival, called the Naqshbandi, is a religious event that celebrates the birth of the 11th-century Sufi scholar and mystic, Sheikh Naim al-Din al-Kermani. It is a time of fasting, prayer, and reflection for the community. Sheep are killed as a sacrifice for the festival and are distributed among the poor. The festival is also celebrated in other parts of Iran, such as Isfahan and Qom.

Veterans Day

A salute to Veterans

AT HOME & ABROAD, THEN & NOW

Sunday, November 11

Veterans Day... a time set aside to remember and reflect upon the courage and steadfastness of all the members of our armed forces throughout our nation's history who have so honorably served their country in time of need.

We ask all to join us in tribute to these gallant men and women. They live on in our hearts; we are eternally grateful. Let us reaffirm our devotion to the ideals for which they fought and died in ongoing tribute to them all.
