College board adopts new insurance; debates audit

Pacific College Board of Trustees met Monday and approved numerous new insurance policies for the institution. The board also spent most of its time discussing an audit of the college's financial records.

Plaque denotes brave, selfless community service

A plaque denoting "brave, selfless community service" has been presented to the family of a local veteran. The plaque was presented during a ceremony held at the local city hall.

Hundreds brave cold for parade

Hundreds of people braved the cold to participate in the annual Christmas parade in downtown. The parade featured floats, music, and local businesses.

Winter Lobliy released

Guy Independent School District named the Winter Lobliy as the title of its new album. The album features a project of students at Guy Independent School District, which celebrates the history and culture of the area.

This is a special issue of 500 copies to mark the 75th anniversary of World War II with a tribute to those who served and sacrificed. The album was recorded with people with disabilities in Europe against Hitler’s invasion.

Members of the Lobliy and students from Guy Independent School District gathered in the Texas State Capitol to release the album. The event was attended by various dignitaries and guests.

Cartage easily feared that the defense would be quite good and that the offense wouldn't be the weakness they were and that the defense would be the strength they could be. They didn't once in, but after the game, because of the popular defenses of the theory for the defense man for the defense, there was a nice feeling. Fans and announcers were aware of the game. The offensive line moved the ball on the field, but the defense was woeful in the game. The defense was the weakness of the team, and the offense was the strength of the team. The defense was the weakness of the team, and the offense was the strength of the team. The defense was the weakness of the team, and the offense was the strength of the team. Bobcats bow 81-76
to Owls in overtime

TRUMBULL -- After a loss to the Owls in overtime last week, the Bobcats were ready to prove they are ready to compete in the TEC. Dayton Barone had 32 points, followed by Tony Williams with 24, and Braden Davis with 22. The Bobcats led by five points going into the second half, but the Owls were able to tie the game at 56 with 5 minutes left. The Bobcats then went on a 7-0 run to take the lead for good. Barone scored 17 of his 32 points in the second half, while Williams added 10. The Bobcats are now 8-1 in the TEC and 13-2 overall.

Can Chiropractic Help Me?

How Much Will It Cost?

We are often asked "What's the best way of finding out whether or not a doctor of chiropractic can help my problem?" We believe the answer can be found in a complete chiropractic consultation and examination, including x-rays. To help you find out for sure, we will do a complete chiropractic consultation and examination, including x-rays (procedures that normally cost $74.00-$123.00 or more) for ONLY $25.00. We will make this special offer available for the next 2 weeks. The only exception to the offer is if you have personal injury coverage (personal accident and auto accidents) in which there is no charge directly to the patient.

The Lobolly records local folklore
Preserving the memories

by CHARLES PUSEY

Lobolly, Arkansas, is often called the "Lobolly capital" of the world. The town is known for its rich history and its connection to the last true American loblolly pine. The Lobolly Pine, a type of evergreen tree native to the southeastern United States, has long been a symbol of the region's natural beauty and cultural heritage.

"They thought that women were doing this flying, everything was so easy. They called us the flying Indians." — Betty Smith

Over the years, the Lobolly Pine has been a symbol of the region's cultural identity. The town has a museum dedicated to the history of the Lobolly Pine, and the annual Lobolly Festival is a popular event that celebrates the tree.

"It's just to see how much we have to offer." — Betty Johnson

The festival includes a variety of activities, such as a loblolly pine tree planting ceremony, a historical walking tour of the town, and a loblolly pine tree art exhibit. The festival is a great opportunity to learn more about the history of the Lobolly Pine and to appreciate the beauty of this special tree.

"Lobolly is a very special tree. It's a very hard tree." — Betty Johnson

The Lobolly Pine is a very special tree. It grows in the rich red clay soils of the southeastern United States, and it is a hardy tree that can survive in a variety of conditions. The Lobolly Pine is also a valuable resource, as it is used for building materials, paper, and other products.

"They had a chance to use the world." — Betty Johnson

The Lobolly Pine is a true American loblolly pine, and it is a symbol of the region's rich history and cultural heritage. Whether you're a local or a visitor, the Lobolly Pine is a tree that is well worth experiencing for yourself.
