Price receives request denial

By CHARLES McILROY

Denied requests by several media representatives for information about the specific sources of the publicly funded program, Price at first maintained that the program, which is supported by federal funds, was not open to the public. He later acknowledged that the program has been held in trust by the program's manager, who has not yet responded to the media inquiries.

Fulgham records open unless more evidence supplied

By CHARLES McILROY

As the investigation into the death of the Texas Attorney General continues, Fulgham's records have been sealed. At the time of the search, Fulgham was not present in the Texas Attorney General's office, and the records were subsequently released. However, the investigation is ongoing, and the records remain sealed until further notice.

Appraisal board selects Holmes

By CHARLES McILROY

The appraisal board has selected Holmes as the new appraiser for the city. The decision was made after a public hearing and a review of the candidates' qualifications and experience. The new appraiser will begin their term on January 1, 2021.

Hodges notches five-hitter
Dogs get revenge, beat Mavs by 7-2

LONDON - David Hodges pitched seven innings, allowing just one run and four hits, to lead the Carthage Dogs to a 7-2 victory over the Mount Vernon Mavs in the opening game of the Class 3-A state tournament Thursday in Carthage.

The Dog's Hodges and the Mavs' Tyler Pugh both played in a district volleyball game the night before, Hodges putting in a question mark and Pugh a minus two. Hodges was the first to exit the field Thursday, coming in for Price in the sixth inning.

The Dog's Hodges pitched a no-hitter last season against the Mavs, and Pugh was hit by a car last week and is still in a hospital in Marshall.

The Dogs rode Hodges through the first four innings, scoring twice in the first and twice in the second, and added another in the fifth. The Dogs led 5-0 after five with Hodges still on the mound.

The Dogs added two more runs in the sixth inning, hiking their lead to 7-0, but Mount Vernon scored a run in the seventh to make it 7-1, and Hodges had his day.

Hodges did not walk anyone, five of seven batters faced were retired on strikes, and six of eight batters faced were retired on ground outs. Hodges started the game and went to the dugout in the sixth inning.

Hodges struck out five of the seven batters he faced Thursday, giving him 435 strikeouts in his career.

Garrison's Lunford stars
Bearcats fall 7-2 in tourney opener

LONDON - Garrison's Lunford thrashed the Dogs long to lead the Bearcats to a 7-2 victory over the Carthage Bulldogs in the opening game of the Class 3-A state tourney Thursday in Carthage.

Lunford was a dominant pitcher, allowing just one run and four hits in the game.

The Bearcats scored in the first inning, and added a run in the second, and scored another in the third.

The Bearcats scored two runs in the fourth inning, and added another in the fifth.

The Bulldogs scored in the sixth inning, and added another in the seventh.

The Bearcats' Lunford was the star of the game, striking out 10 of the 13 batters he faced Thursday.
